The Family Tree

A limb has fallen from the family tree
I hear a voice that whispers,
'Grieve not for me'

Remember the best times,
the laughter, the songs
The good I lived
while I was strong

Continue my heritage,
I'm counting on you Keep on smiling,
the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease,
my soul is at rest Remembering all...
how I was truly blessed

Continue traditions,
no matter how small Go on with your lives,
don't stare at the wall

I miss you all dearly
so keep up your chin Until that fine day
we're together again.

Her Story

On December 29, 1948, Betty Ann Knight was born to Bertha Knight and Jeremiah Shabazz in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She was lovingly raised by Anna Catherine Jackson.

Betty attended the Philadelphia Public Schools graduating from William Penn High School in 1966. She was employed by the School District of Philadelphia (Head Start Program) from 1977 and retired in 2011. She worked the majority of her years in the Logan Head Start Program. She loved teaching and working with children. After retiring, she continued to maintain a close relationship with those she worked with throughout her years at the Head Start Program.

Betty was introduced to God at an early age at Mother Zoar African Methodist Church. She loved God and praised Him.

Betty was affectionately called "Betty Ann," by her family and childhood friends. She enjoyed spending time with family, shopping, cooking, traveling and feeding her family and friends. She was very social and enjoyed meeting friends and family out for a meal. She was known to have a beautiful smile that was memorable and a sense of humor.

Betty succumbed to breast cancer on March 16, 2023. She was preceded in death by her parents. She leaves to cherish her memory, her children, Marc, Beth, and Bayinnah, her granddaughter Anjhane and bonus granddaughter Robin. She has 7 sisters and 5 brothers and 4 preceded her in death. She had a special bond with her big brother Thomas with whom she spoke with often. She also leaves a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, neighbors and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family
