

Kayla Jean Scott was born on May 11, 1997 in Alexandria, MN. Kayla grew up in Alexandria and received her education at Zion Lutheran School and Alexandria High School. She graduated in 2015 as the first class after the school opened. Kayla grew up in the Lutheran faith and was able to go on Zion school field trips and attend the Lutheran Island Camp during the summers.

Kayla worked at a couple of restaurants before being blessed with her two children: Jaxson and Jazmynn and being able to care for them at home.

Kayla loved to keep herself busy by competing in fishing tournaments with her mom and grandpa, going on family vacations to different states, and spending time outside at her favorite lakes, beaches, and parks. She also had a passion for Taekwondo, which she had earned her red stripe and was only one rank away from black belt. Kayla was also able to place 3rd in three of her competitions.

Kayla had such a bright smile and could light up the room, she will be deeply missed by her children: Jaxson and Jazmynn Gwinn; mother: Heidi Scott; siblings: Austin, David, and Gabriella Scott; grandparents: Gregory and Barbara Scott; nephew: Spencer Scott; aunts and uncles: Milo and Amy Scott; great-aunts and uncles: Randy and Teresa Scott, Lowell and Joanne Werk, and Lynette Miller; and cousins: Tyler Scott and Kendra Scott.

Kayla is preceded in death by her great-grandparents: Arnold and Ardeen Wollin and Robert and Alice Scott; great-aunts and uncles: Brent and Arlyce Scott, Roger and Alyce Scott, Al Scott, and Bruce Wollin.

The Day God Called You Home

God looked around His garden and found an empty space.

*Then He looked down upon the earth
and saw your tired face.*

*He put his arms around you,
lifted you to rest.*

*God's garden must be beautiful,
for He only takes the best.*

*He knew that you were suffering.
He knew you were in pain.*

*He saw the road was getting rough,
and the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyes,
and whispered, "Peace be thine".*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you did not go alone.*

*For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.*
