

Because I Love Her Too

I took someone you dearly love
somewhere that's far from you.
I called her home to be with me
because I love her too.

I feel your pain and sadness,
but let your faith be strong.
The one you love is in my care
and joyfully lives on.

Weep because you miss her
and because you're far apart.
These are feelings from the love
I've placed inside your heart.

In time I'll send an angel
to come to earth for you,
and bring you here to be with us,
because I love you too.
