

Cora Jean Weiland was born December 17, 1949, the daughter of Edmond and Anna (Martin) Weiland. She grew up in Glen Ullin, graduating from Glen Ullin High School in 1967 before earning her bachelors in Education from DSU. Cora taught at Sacred Heart School until its closing. She then worked at the Beulah power plant before returning to teaching in South Dakota. She also spent 35 years working as a parish secretary at Fr. Thompson from 1985-2020. She spent her time at St. Joseph's Catholic Church doing maintenance, cleaning, bookwork and finances. Cora loved sports and played softball well into her 50s. A Yankee fan, Cora collected sports memorabilia and cards. Cora enjoyed working with the Native American community in Ft. Thompson. She especially liked photography, cats, old photos, family history, and collecting arrowheads. Cora is survived by her brothers Gary (Joan) Weiland and Allan (Mary Ann) Wieand; brothers-in law Ray Diede and Steven Donahue; best friend and co-worker Sister Charles; 12 nieces and nephews. Cora is preceded in death by her parents, Edmond and Anna Weiland; sisters Adeline Diede and Janice Donahue; one nephew and two nieces.

Just because you're leaving
Doesn't mean I'm saying goodbye
Things that were never born
You know can never die
If you leave before I
Know now I shall never cry
For I know to where you travel
And how happy you will be
My greatest sorrow will be
You got there before me.

Gary Weiland
