His Journey Has Just Begun

Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years. Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

"When Someone You Love Becomes A Memory; The Memory Becomes A Treasure."

FIDELE ADJISSO

To plant a seed in one's heart...to root it in love...

To nourish it with time spent together...

Yields a blossom that will flourish forever.

Fidele Adjisso was born on December 31, 1993, in Kpomassè in Benin to his parents, Gaston and Sehotode Adjisso. He was raised surrounded by his brothers, Ambroise, Raymon, Casimir; and his sister, Augustine. As a child, he enjoyed fishing, play write, and play director. He received his early education by graduating from Tokpa-Domè Elementary School and his High School Diploma from Tokpa-Domè High School. He furthered his education by earning an associate degree in philosophy from the University of Abomey Calavi in Benin. He immigrated to the USA in 2017 with 3 years course work in Philosophy from the same University.

On May 17, 2023, Fidele received his Certificate of Naturalization and became a United States Citizen while residing in Greeley, Colorado. He was employed by Cargill Meats in Greeley, Colorado. He was hardworking, dependable, and performed his duties with a spirit of excellence. His fellow co-workers will miss his sympathetic nature, his humbleness, and his sense of humor.

A man of faith and belief, Fidele was a member of the MEA Evangelic Church.

Fidele was a fun-loving young man, who enjoyed life and those he encircled. His closest friends, Laurent, Victor, Radegunde, Edmond, Chedrack, Manmoa Zali, Romanic, Laume, and Maurice will miss his empathy, humility, and his jovial personality. They all shared many happy and memorable moments together.

Fidele will be missed by all who were fortunate enough to have known this kind and wonderful man. To know Fidele was to love him.

Fidele Adjisso departed this life on July 15, 2023, in Greeley, Colorado. Those left to cherish his memory and mourn his loss include his mother, Sehotode Adjisso; siblings, Ambroise Adjisso, Raymon Adjisso, Augustine Adjisso, and Casimir Adjisso; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and many friends.
