Closing Prayer Kristy Garr

When I die, give what's left of me away, to children and to old men who wait to die. And if you need to cry, cry for your brother or sister who walks the streets beside you. And when you need me, put your arms around anyone, and give them what you need to give to me.

I want to leave you something, something better than words, or sounds. Look for me in the people I've known or loved, and if you can not give me away, at least let me live in your eyes and not in your mind.

You can love me most by letting hands touch hands, by letting bodies touch bodies, and by letting go of children that need to be free. Love doesn't die, people do, so when all that's left of me is love, give me away.
