

She is Gone

*You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived*

*You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left*

*Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of love that you shared*

*You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday*

*You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on*

*You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what she would want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.*

Remembering Her Life

So grieve a little while for me if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust that its only for a time that we must part, bless be the memories within your heart.

Lynette Marie Jimmerson (Nette) was born on October 5, 1963, in Omaha, NE.

She was the second of three children born to the parents of Carrie E.

Jimmerson and Thurmon Jimmerson Jr. She graduated from North High School in 1982. She attended Metro Technical Community College where she completed several courses and obtained certifications in providing healthcare services. She was employed at GameCo for over 5 years, provided residential in-home healthcare assistance and performed residential lawn and commercial cleaning services.

Lynette and Tyrone Thorne welcomed their only child, Cyan La'Shea Thorne on June 15, 1995. She was grandmother to her daughter's twins, Mya and Marcell Phillips born on October 25, 2012. Lynette developed a talent for cooking and preparing meals for friends and family. She enjoyed placing a creative spin on her favorite desserts and entrees. Lynette accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Savior, was baptized and became a member of Empty Tomb Ministries in South Omaha, NE under the leadership of Pastor Steve Sheridan.

As a result of failing health, Lynette was called home March 15, 2024, at 9:30am. She is preceded in death by her grandfather, Samuel Johnson; grandmother, Frances L. Johnson; father, Thurmon Jimmerson Jr.; aunt, Betty Johnson; aunt, Ruthie Mance; grandfather, Thurmon Jimmerson Sr.; grandmother, Ernestine Jimmerson; step-grandmother, Betha Lee Jimmerson; companion, Tyrone Thorne and brother, Donald R. Recessional

Matthew 11: 28-30

Come to me all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke and learn from me; for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

NIV: John 14:1-3

Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God: believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.
