

Dear Daddy,

Thank you for always being you. You helped shape and mold me into the woman I am today. You were kind, big hearted, and joyful. You knew that the little things made life feel big. Words could never express how much you loved me. Let you tell it, "That girl is spoiled rotten!" I would deny it, but then I'd grin, because I knew it was true too. The time we shared together seemed so short, but the memories and love will last a lifetime. You were always by my side. You answered my calls day or night. You always allowed me to be myself and encouraged me to live my life. You never let a disagreement change our relationship. We always bounced back harder than before. I couldn't have asked for a better father. Thank you for your guidance, light, and love.

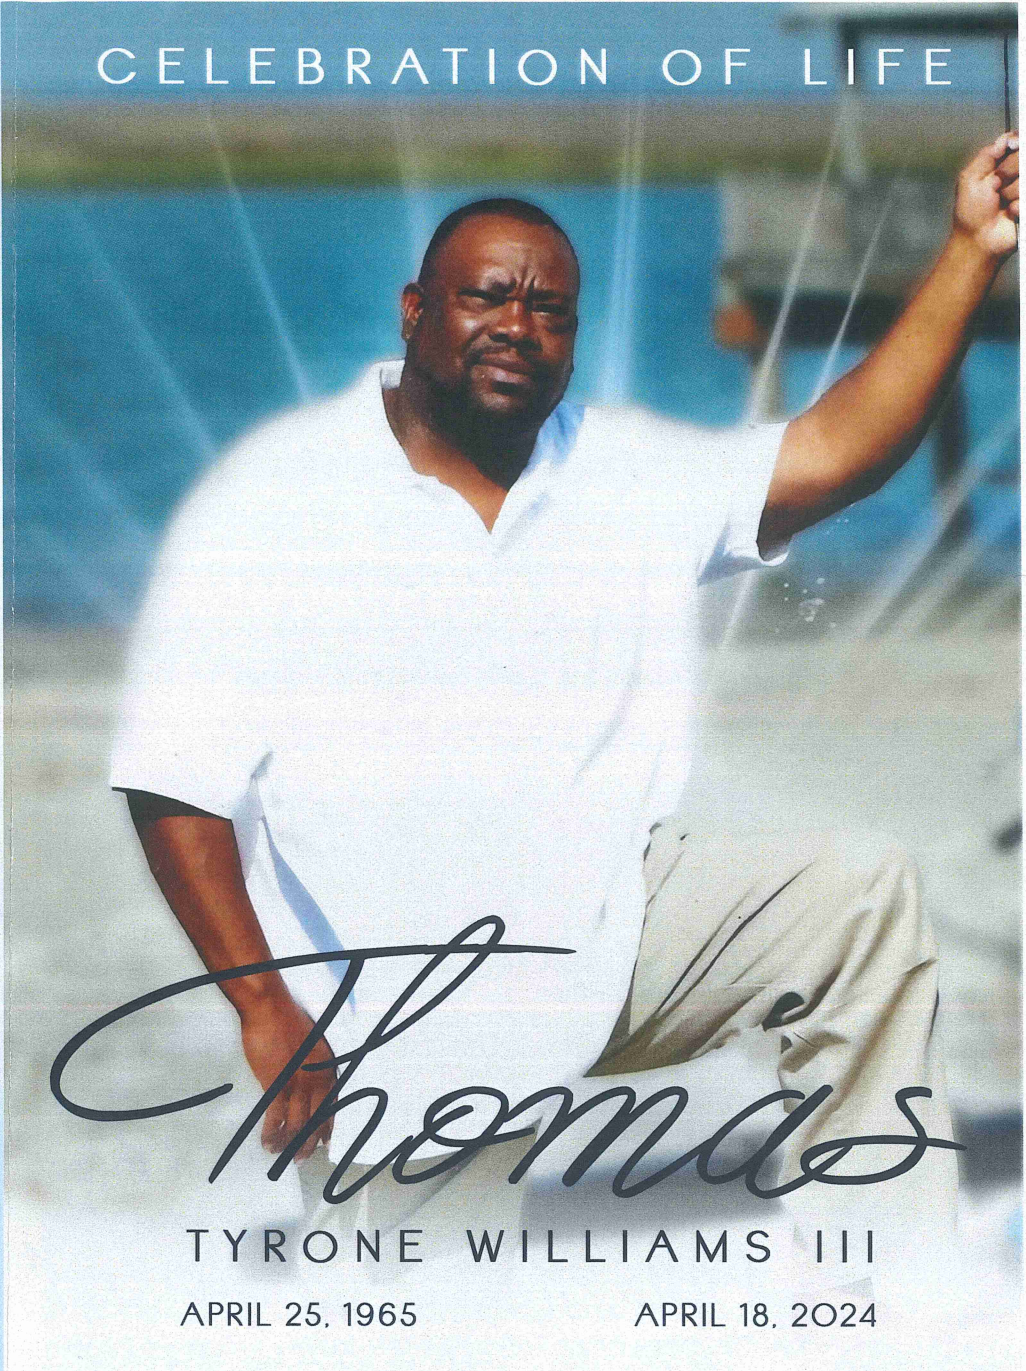

Love you until the end of time,

Alexis S. Williams
