ROMANS 14:19

Bruce G. Clement, 72, of Garner, passed away unexpectedly of a brain aneurysm on Sunday, September 15, 2024, at MercyOne North Iowa Medical Center in Mason City.

Bruce Gordon Clement, the son of Roland and Eugenia (Riff) Clement, was born August 20, 1952, in Forest City, Iowa. He attended school in Miller and graduated from Garner-Hayfield High School in 1970. He continued his education at several colleges in Iowa and Minnesota, and he loved sharing stories about those days. On August 24, 1985, he married the love of his life, Laurel Brown at the United Methodist Church in Garner. They lived in Garner all their married life where they raised their three children. Bruce had a long-time career in the concrete business and was honored to help local farmers whenever he had the opportunity. He was a selfless, kind, hard-working man that everyone could count on and so many called friend. Bruce was humbly wise in the most special way. His family is forever grateful to have such a special husband, dad, and grandpa and will cheer on the Cyclones with pride for him.

Bruce is survived by his wife, Laurel, of Garner; three children, Josah Clement (Josh Anderson) of Lauderdale, MN, Chelsea (Jordan) Hubred and their three children, Rosie, Ellis and Fern of Roseville, MN, and Logan (Courtney) Clement and their daughter, Elsie of Urbandale; an honorary son, Marcin (Bethany) Cecot and their children, Myah and AJ of Indianola; siblings, Elizabeth Clement Smith (Dan) of Coon Rapids, MN, Craig (Juanita) Clement of Garner, Joan Hillier (Bob Dalmeny) of Chehalis, WA, Doug Clement of Garner, Spencer Clement of Garner, Stuart Clement of Garner and Muriel (Scott) Poppens of Cedar Falls; a brother-in-law, Kevin (Michiko) Brown of Gunnison, CO; and many nieces and nephews.

[AGAINST THE NOISE OF LIFE WE MIGHT CHOOSE CALM]

By Michael Kleber-Diggs

Against the noise of life we might choose calm;
a steady strength endures in times of wrath.
When moments test us, patience is our balm.
Pernicious problems will succumb to math.

And what is math but wisdom, work and time?
And what is wisdom if it's not applied?
With steadfast effort both sides will align;
(solutions will arrive if we abide).

Good people show up where they're meant to be.
Where there is need we have a chance to serve.
When discipline stays kind it's plain to see.
The finest way to learn is to observe.

Your earthly body's gone, but you're still here.
And like your lesson's hold, we hold you dear.
