NAMES OF GOD BREAD OF LIFE

Jesus said to the people, “ I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, yet they died. But here is the bread that comes down from heaven which people may eat and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven.

Whoever eats of this bread will live forever. This bread is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.”

How to Hear the Voice of God

The Whispering Spot - For Abraham, it was the oak of Mamre. For Jacob, it was Bethel. For Moses, it was a burning bush. For Samuel, it was the tabernacle at Shiloh. For David, it was the cave of Adullam. For Daniel, it was the upstairs window facing Jerusalem. For Jonah, it was the belly of a whale. And more. . . .

Survey Scripture. Do you see God showing up in strange places? He still turns appointments into divine appointments. He still uploads desires, opens doors, and inspires dreams. He still speaks through promptings and people and pain. And just as he did for Moses, He can turn any patch of ground into holy ground.

Is your inner ear consecrated to Christ? Is the still small voice the loudest voice in your life?

“Tell me to what you pay attention,” said the Spanish philosopher Jose’ Ortega y Gasset, “and I will tell you who are you.” You will eventually be shaped in the image of the loudest voice in your life--- the voice you listen to most.
