

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

REFLECTION OF LIFE

*As recorded in the Book of Ecclesiastes,
“To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose: a time to be born and time to die – All in the fulfillment of God’s Divine Will must be done.”*

Mr. Garland Keith King, affectionately known as “Po Possum,” was born in Jacksonville, Florida, on October 28, 1956, to the late Emmanuel King and Dorothy Jolley. He was reared by his grandmother, Leatha King.

At an early age, he joined Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church in Sasser, Georgia. He was an usher for numerous years.

He attended the public schools of Terrell County, Georgia. As a provider for his family, he began working at Stevens Industries at the age of 15. He also maintained employment at Dawson Manor and McCleskey Mills, Inc. In later years, he worked and retired from Oxford Construction Company.

In 1982, he married Hattie Mallory. To this union, four children were born.

Garland was family-oriented and was heavily involved in his community. He was a natural nurturer. He provided care and assistance to everyone.

On Monday, February 26, 2024, surrounded by family, Garland ended his earthly journey. In addition to his grandmother and parents, he was preceded in death by his son, Carlos King.

Precious memories will forever be etched upon the hearts of his wife, Hattie King; children, Tamiko (Russell) Jones, Derrick Mallory, Latonya (Nakia) Butler, Terrence Mallory, Latoya (Carl) Robinson, Tynisha Hall, and Garland King, Jr.; siblings, Julius King, Belinda Jolley, and Teresa Council; a special niece Sophia (Bobbie) Kendrick; 14 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
