OBITUARY

DR. FLENOY BENJAMIN RICHARDSON II

SEPTEMBER 27, 1948 — JUNE 13, 2024

Flenoy Benjamin Richardson II was born to Flenoy B. Richardson Sr. and Ruby Lee Richardson in Dallas, Texas, on September 27, 1948. He was the second-born son among seven children. Growing up on the Southside of Dallas, he attended Dunbar Elementary School. At the age of 12, Ruby moved her family to Los Angeles, California, for better opportunities. Flenoy attended 99th Street School, and thanks to the firm foundation in Christ set by Ruby, he never participated in or even considered gangs, drugs, alcohol, or any other vices that made living in LA difficult for most young people.

Flenoy was a great student, excelling in math and participating in track and field as a runner baseball as a pitcher, and basketball. In his younger days, he was known for his exceptional dancing skills and was a big fan of the Motown sound and old standards. These moves would become his trademark, not only in his youth but also as a praiser in the kingdom.

In addition to his dancing skills, Flenoy had an infamous singing voice and sang in several groups, often performing the falsetto parts of popular songs. He graduated from John C. Fremont High School in 1967.

After finishing high school, Flenoy pursued a life of service in the military. His original desire was to become an airman, but according to his brother, "they didn't get back to him soon enough," so he enlisted in the United States Marine Corps (USMC) on March 10, 1968. This decision would lead Flenoy to his biggest testimony.

During his time serving in the Vietnam War, as a leader of his platoon, while doing a sweep of the area, Flenoy encountered a booby trap and was thrown into the air. While the two soldiers next to him were blown apart, Flenoy lost his finger and almost lost his left leg, But, GOD. For this injury, he received the distinguished Purple Heart and several other military honors for his leadership. After this life-changing experience, Flenoy was absolutely convinced that he had been spared to worship and lead people to Christ. In 1970, he accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior and was later ordained as an Elder in 1987. He was a faithful member of the Revival Time Church of God in Christ, where he learned and received the gift of directing the choir under the leadership of Charles Bennet Sr. It was also here that he met the absolute love of his life, Ms. Terry Ann Robinson. They were married on March 10, 1973. God gave him his heart's song in Terry, and with her encouragement, love, and support, he became one of the best choir directors on the West Coast. With his gift, absolute love, and adoration, she became one of the most well-known sopranos in the choir circuit during this time. They went on countless tours and were featured on several recordings with some of gospel's most legendary choirs, led by luminaries such as Dr. Mattie Moss Clark and Dr. Ira Stevenson. However, their most treasured experiences were those with his best friend Elder Tony McGill. Tony and Flenoy had a 50-year friendship, as their churches often fellowshiped with each other.

I remember visiting my grandparents and we were eating at Cheesecake Factory. We were all laughing and listening to Grandpa tell a story; when the waiter attempted to take his plate away. When Grandpa noticed he gently slapped his hand and said, "No No No, I'm not finished". The waiter apologized and then laughed along with the family. I will miss you!

-Tyler

Dr. Granpaw,

Finding the right words in the English language to express the depth of what you mean to me feels impossible. It has been my dream to be someone's granddaughter to truly feel like I belong in a family. You and grandma gave me this gift. You allowed me to see that love has no bounds and that blood relation means absolutely nothing when it comes to how much you can care for an individual. I am grateful that you made my dad. I'm grateful that you gave me, so many years of love, advice, and laughter. I will forever miss you and our conversations. Granpaw, the oil that you made me I will keep close to my heart forever. Love you it is my prayer that you're in heaven, reminiscing and reconnecting with all those who went before you. I pray that you got a chance to see Ashley and that one day when it is my turn I get a chance to reunite with you.

With a love that transcends all boundaries,
-Amber

My grandfather was such an incredible role model in my life. Through him, I got to learn and understand that no matter what was going on in my life that I would always have someone to vent to, counsel me, and make me laugh through life's hardships. I will keep in mind your wisdom and hopefully, I can grow up to be half the man that you were. You will remain in our hearts forever, Grandpa, since there will never be any other person who can replace you in our hearts and souls.

-MarSean

Always & forever.....

To our Grandfather

“Thank you Grandpa for everything you taught me and the unconditional love. You have shown me what the best man is, a Father and husband. I'm so blessed to call you my grandfather I love you.

-Avontey

To the man that raised me thank you for your lessons your guidance and wisdom without you in my life I would've been lost. You show me honor and respect things that I will pass down to my kids so they can pass it down to theirs. Your legacy is forever and your lessons will be taught to our families for generations. I love you and will miss you even though I will be reminded of you every time I teach my kids right from wrong.

-Jonathan Harris

Pawpaw, I remember telling you that I was in the Army and us bonding over your stories of your time served. I watched you pull out all of your awards and metals as I thought to myself how much of a true Hero you are. Not only are you a hero for this nation but your family too. I'm going to miss you making sure I gave you a hug coming and going and you trying so hard not to crack a smile at my jokes and for us bonding over our fondness of 2 dollar bills and how big you smiled when I gave you one of mine that I collected. I keep mine in my phone case at all times now as a silent reminder of you. Thank you for welcoming all of us into your family. I will always remember you for our time no matter how short. Your life spoke volumes every single day and all of your choices and actions showed us the right way. Love you Forever

-Spencer

Grandpa ... you were our “Yoda”. Thank you for teaching us how to take care of ourselves and those we love. We will miss watching Star Wars and Godzilla movies with you. You were the best and we love you very much.

- Jeremiah and Jadon

Along with Mark Bennett and Larry Seals, these four men shared an unbroken bond that sustained Flenoy throughout his life.

Flenoy and Terry were blessed with three children: Teira, Flenoy III, and Shawn. He was a great father who had the perfect mix of discipline and love. He was always fair, and always loving, and created an atmosphere of love and respect in his home. Professionally, he received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Business Administration from L.A. Southern College. Flenoy was a dedicated employee of Rockwell International as an accountant for 19 years. After being laid off during an economic crisis, like his mother before him, Flenoy moved the family to Las Vegas, Nevada, for better opportunities. He went on to lend his accounting talent to RLW, working with his brother-in-law Jackie Robinson as a senior manager until his retirement.

While leaving home and their home church was a very emotional and difficult decision, Flenoy found his new home and family at Pentecostal Temple Church of God in Christ under the leadership of Bishop Leon Smith, whom he served as assistant pastor. At Pentecostal Temple, his fatherhood took on new meaning as he became a spiritual mentor, surrogate father, and grandfather to many, including Jemel McClendon, Orlander Anderson, and Derrick Huggins, whom he loved like his own.

In his later years, Flenoy fulfilled a lifelong dream by receiving his Doctorate in Divinity in 2018 and became one of the most revered instructors for Kingdom Builders Bible Seminary School. He continued to inspire and mentor countless individuals through his deep faith, wisdom, and unwavering commitment to service. Flenoy's legacy is one of faith, love, resilience, and dedication. He touched the lives of all who knew him and left an indelible mark on his community, family, and church. His life was a testament to the power of faith and the importance of family, service, and leadership.

His loved ones preceding him in death are: Ruby Richardson (mother), Flenoy B Richardson Sr (father), James “JP” Richardson (brother), Michael Richardson (brother), Ashley Holmes-Lindley (granddaughter), and Lasonia Tumbling (niece)

Flenoy is survived by his beloved wife Terry Richardson, children: Teira Richardson-Young (Michael), Flenoy Richardson III (Quiana), and Shawn Richardson (Lamia) Siblings: Margie Riley, Gwen McIntyre, Janice Williams, and Anthony Richardson.

Grandchildren: Amber, Jonathan, Avontey, Marsean, Quelonnie, Forever, Tyler, Odum, Deanna, Spencer, Jeremiah, and Jadon. Great Grandchildren: Donta, Lydia, Daylin, Anya, Zion, London, Baylee, Brianna, Desi, Dash, Judah and Spencer. along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, former students, and friends who will miss him dearly. Though we mourn his passing, we also celebrate the incredible life he lived and the eternal impact he made on our hearts and souls.

Rest in peace, Dr. Flenoy Benjamin Richardson II. Your light will continue to shine in our memories and hearts forever.

TO OUR BROTHER

YOU WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN!

To my Big Brother JR.

I ask you a question one day, Are you a believer? You laughed. Then you told me No. I said What??? You laughed again. Then you said, I'm a person that is knowing, not believing. Just look at your life and see what God has done in it. Read some of the scriptures and it will not take all of them and then take a really, really good look at your life. Oh, ok, so I did. Looking at everything I could remember Jesus Christ has done for me. I know now what you mean by knowing not believing!!!

Thank you Big Brother.
I will see you on the other side.

Love,
your little Brother. Anthony.....

Growing up you always thought you were the boss, and as got older you were still there to guide us and give us sound advice. You were truly an amazing brother and leader. I will truly miss hearing your voice and our long talks.
Gwen

A man of integrity, a Man of God. Son, brother, husband father, friend, Saint But to me you're my lovely Brother, Margie.

To my big brother Flenoy this is a bittersweet time for me. Bitter because I won't be able to hear you say there is purpose in your call and sweet because I know you are home with Jesus. Missing you and I love you so much ❤️
your Sis Janice Williams

My brother one and a million. Right about now the heavens would be saying,
"The 5-star General of Praise and Worship is now entering in."
We all know that Felony loves giving God praise and worship. If no one else did, he was going to praise God. We're going to miss you. The Bible lets us know, 1 day in heaven, is like 1000 years on earth.
So I'll say, see you soon. I miss you and love you.

Your brother, Anthony McGill.

My brother Flenoy, I could always talk to you and you would give me good advice whether I like like it or not. Love you, my brother.
I will miss you. Debra, Your Sis.

To my everything.....

51 years ago I gave you my heart because I knew that God had yours

I was told not to marry you because you did not have riches or fine clothes.

I praise God for the gift he loaned to me because, of that our children grandchildren, and great-grands were blessed with a wonderful life.

With heaven in mind, you live the life you studied and preached. Always giving glory to God because it all belonged to him.

Until we meet again I'll keep praising him. Goodnight Bae, rest well Terry
