- OBITUARY -

Early Monday morning at the dawning of a new day
August 15, 2022,

Daisy Marie

affectionately called "Sister", daughter of Willie Bynum and Sarah Williams Bynum, received the call of a life-time. None of us heard it, because it was a whisper from the mouth of God to Daisy's heart. He told her that he had blessed her with the most beautiful weekend of her life. He had given her the desire of her heart and now it was time to come home, rest a while and join the great cloud of witnesses cheering us onward. We'll never understand the why or how of this sudden transition. There's no need for us to try to figure it out. Something this sudden has God's hand all over it. If we're being honest, it happened just as she would have wanted it. She was with her family, made beautiful memories and had rich fellowship. She left much like she lived her life. She commanded the necessary attention but wasn't trying to disrupt the process. She was trying to get home. We just didn't know that home wasn't going to be Wilson any longer.

Daisy was born number 5 of 14 on July 11, 1947. Five means grace, and gracefully truly describes all that Daisy was. She did not bare any children but mothered her younger siblings, nieces, and nephews. All of us have spent time in her home enjoying all of our favorite foods, going to good movies, concerts, and cultural events that we likely would not have ever experienced had it not been for her. She was generous, kind, fun loving, and truly had a heart and compassion for all people. Daisy was reared in Wilson, NC where she received her formative education from the Wilson County Public School System. Upon graduating from Springfield High School in 1965, she relocated to Washington, DC. There, she worked as a teacher assistant and was employed by the Federal Government and worked at the Library of Congress for 38 years. In 2007 she retired and returned to Wilson, NC. Daisy believed in the love of God and gave her life willing to Him. She joined the ministries and fellowship at St. Rose United Holy Church where she worshipped and served faithfully. She will be dearly missed. Her after church Sunday lunches with the ladies from church were a big part of her week.
