Adventist World Radio

Adventist World Radio. “Change was in the wind in 1989 when the Cold War ended, the Berlin Wall came down, and Romania was liberated. As Romania’s Communist leader, Nicolae Ceaușescu, and his wife fled for their lives, they were captured, tried, and executed.

“Ilie Radu and his wife, Lidia, felt free for the first time in their lives. Ilie began to search for answers to the questions that had been burning in his heart about God and about what happens when you die....

“After a few years, while studying the Bible, they discovered that Jesus was baptized in the Jordan River and not sprinkled. Ilie immediately requested that his new church family baptize him. He was informed that he had been sprinkled as a baby and that was good enough. Feeling devastated, Ilie began again to search for truth....

“Then four years ago, Ilie was working as a switcher for the railroad.... One day he noticed that a fellow worker had a radio app on his cell phone, and when they had some downtime waiting on the trains, he would listen to the radio on his phone. That gave Ilie the idea to do the same, so he began listening to a Christian station while at work. The station he liked most was the very popular Radio Vocea Sperantei, an affiliate of Adventist World Radio!”
