

The Revelation of Whom? Seminar

07- Come Out Wherever You Are

There is something in our genes and chromosomes that resists depending upon another. Pride and self-sufficiency are universal, both in and out of church, but God calls His people to come away.

Summary Points

- † Kid's Feature: Story of the King of the Jungle –Who do we want as King?
- † Flower illustration
- † Revelation 17 summarized as “Babylon” prostitute seeking to destroy God's people
- † The Lamb overcomes His enemies –Revelation 17:14
- † Revelation 18 begins with an angel declaring Babylon's ruin, noting that ALL have fallen for her seductions
- † Hebrews 12:1 refers to the “sin that so easily entangles (besets)”, which is pride and self-dependence
- † Revelation 18:4 calls the self-dependent to come for healing of this universal problem
- † King David talks about the “way of all men” – 1 Kings, 2:2
- † Examples: David, Solomon, Moses, Abraham, Jacob, Joshua, Elijah, Hezekiah, Peter
- † Personalize “loud cry message” rather than foist it onto Rome
- † God calls HIS people out of Babylon –Revelation 18:4-5
- † Read Revelation 18:9-24 for a description of Babylon's final destruction
- † Twin Towers illustration
- † Recipe for Bread and 3-legged stool
- † Bible-study to know Jesus, Prayer for communication, Sharing the Good News
- † Need for re-focusing on Jesus –Letter to Battle Creek Church, 1896
- † Come to Jesus to survive Babylon's destruction -Matthew 11:28
- † Jesus promise to accept all who come to Him –John 6:37
- † Song: “Come” -Buddy Houghtaling