*Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.
In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so,
I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.
And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.
John 14:1-3*

Obituary

Arlene Barker-McIver was born on July 7, 1942 in the city of Savannah, Georgia. She attended Alfred E. Beach High School and Arlene later graduated from Richard Arnold High, and continued her education and became a Nursing Assistant. Arlene was an active member of her church, participated in Community Drives as a Volunteer, she became an Eastern Star and continued to be very active gaining the respect of her friends and the love of her family. Arlene Retired as a Nursing Assistant after more than 40 yrs.

It is true that some of the most beautiful people you meet are the people you meet every day along Life's journey. Arlene was such a Soul she was a daughter a mother, a sister and she was always ready to assist others. As a daughter Arlene was attentive as to what was going on at home and there she learn to prepare meals for the family. She was an amazing cook (chef), it came natural to her. Known for some of the best pies and cakes around Savannah, Georgia Arlene gleamed her culinary skills from her mother Lois Barker.

Arlene was the mother of six and she was always striving to make life better for her family. She was a mother who loved her kids. She was a very proud mother and always bragged on her family. As the youngest of four children she was often the center of attention which Arlene enjoyed. Arlene loved her nephew Cedric Barker and raised him like her own.

After, Arlene graduated she became a member of Saint Paul Missionary Baptist where she enjoyed singing in the choir. Later in life Arlene became an active member of, Greater Gaines Chapel AME Church, Savannah, Georgia. As an active member Arlene was an Usher and chaired and participated in numerous Community activities. Believing in family and community so strongly Arlene became an Eastern Star and continued to be very active gaining the respect of her Eastern Star family. Additionally, Arlene would volunteer at local community organization serving battered women and gave much of her time to young people and especially her grandchildren, whom she loved.

On June 13th, 2021 during the early morning the Lord called Arlene to her heavenly celebration of life and Transformation into a heavenly body.
