

“The Broken Chain”

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

In Remembrance of

Sandra Sue
“Sandy” Graham
1947-2024

Sandra Sue “Sandy” Boysen was born on September 9, 1947, to John Paul and Audrey Bernice (Longabaugh) Boysen in Pueblo, Colorado. She attended and graduated from Pueblo East High School. She earned a bachelor’s degree in Elementary Education from Colorado State College. Sandy married Lawrence Paul “Larry” Graham in Pueblo on April 12, 1969, and together they raised two beautiful daughters, Lori and Lisa. Sandy was a devoted military wife and stay at home mom while her girls were young. She was always involved and present for anything her girls needed.

Her passion for education was evident to all her students during her years as an adult education teacher. She enjoyed watching wildlife, especially the deer at the lake, and puzzle books. Her passion was crocheting and gifting handmade afghans to everyone she met; however, her most treasured pastime was any time spent with family. Sandy passed away peacefully at her home in Altus the morning of July 16, 2024.

Sandy is survived by her loving husband of 55 years, Larry; daughters, Lori Hagen and husband, Tim and Lisa Mendez and husband, Alfredo; grandson, Mateo Mendez; sister, Pam Hyndman and husband, Danny; mother-in-law, Mildred Graham; brother-in law, Mike Graham; and other nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by her grandson, Blake Hagen; sisters, Diane Pagano and Debbie Poor; and her parents, John and Audrey.
