THURMAN MORRIS, JR

Thurman, Morris, Jr.; AKA, "Junior," 80 of Savannah, Georgia, and husband of Suk-hui Kim Morris, went home to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on Tuesday, November 2, 2021 at St. Joseph's hospital.

A Savannah native, he was the son of the late Thurman Morris, Sr. and Gracie Lee Giles Morris. He graduated from Tompkins High School and attended Draughon's Junior College. He enjoyed a long and successful military career in the US Army and the 283 rd Georgia Air National Guard Unit. Thurman loved electronics and was an entrepreneur who owned and operated, "Gold Shield Electronics," where he installed burglar alarms all over the coastal empire. He later retired as an HVAC Technician and Electrician with, "The A Team" electrical firm.

For many years Thurman was a Deacon and an Exhorter at the Richmond Hill Holiness Church. He played bass guitar in the church band and volunteered in several ministries including Royal Rangers, his church's Food Pantry, Old Savannah City Mission and the Bible and Prayer Brotherhood. He loved joking around, laughing and sharing a good meal with family and friends! He will be dearly missed by the many people who loved him and enjoyed his sweet, loving and generous spirit.

Thurman is survived by his beloved angel and cherished wife of 55 years, Suk-hui Kim Morris; precious daughter, Janice Han-mi Morris Corbett (Les); his treasured sister, Christine Denise Howard; his dear brother, Anthony Moody, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and countless friends.
