The Life Story of
Amanda
LANET CHAPMAN

On September 3, 1979, in Las Vegas, Nevada, Alfreda and Arthur Chapman Jr. welcomed a beautiful bouncing baby girl named Amanda Lanet who was endlessly adored by her family. The middle sister of two brothers, Amanda was a gentle soul, soft spoken, full of life and had an infectious laugh. Amanda had a love for cooking, music and cats, which included Bonkers, Aristotle, Nia, Callie (and others!), all of whom Amanda would lovingly make Alfreda “cat grandma”.

She took up piano and violin at an early age and was a member of the Las Vegas Youth Orchestra. In 1991, she accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at Grace Emmanuel Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Sylvester P. Parks. While at Western High School, Amanda was a member of the cross-country running team, Student Council and Color Guard. She graduated in 1997 and went on to attend Clark Atlanta University in Atlanta Georgia. Upon returning to Las Vegas, Amanda followed in her mother’s footsteps and began working for the Clark County School District where she was employed for over 20 years as an administrative assistant. Driven by her passion for cooking, she enrolled in Le Cordon Bleu College of Culinary Arts and earned her degree in 2017.

On October 23, 2004, Amanda welcomed her baby boy Aiden, whom she loved and cherished and affectionately referred to him as “Grandpa.” Along with Amanda’s numerous accomplishments, being a mother was her greatest blessing. The legacy of Amanda’s giving nature and kind, resolute devotion to her family and friends will forever be treasured. She will be remembered for being a devoted and doting mother, beautiful daughter, dedicated sister, caring niece, fun cousin, constant friend, and for her incredible sense of humor.

As a family, we are honored to have had her in our lives and she will be dearly missed but will live on in our memories and hearts forever. Amanda was preceded in death by her father Arthur Chapman Jr. She leaves to cherish her beautiful memory her loving son Aiden Chapman, mother Alfreda Chapman, and brothers Arthur III and Alan Emmitt, along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

A Wonderful Mother by Pat O'Reilly.

God made a wonderful mother,
A mother who never grows old;
He made her smile of the sunshine,
And He moulded her heart of pure gold;
In her eyes He placed bright shining stars,
In her cheeks fair roses you see;
God made a wonderful mother,
And He gave that dear mother to me.

Acknowledgement

Our family has endured the loss of two of our dear loved ones within the last two months, and we are eternally grateful to all of you who have opened your hearts and provided us endless support through this very difficult time. We are honored and privileged to have you as friends and family. We are forever in your debt.

-The Family of Amanda Lanet Chapman

“Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.”

How Grateful I Would Be to Have Just One More Day

If I could have just one more day and wishes did come true,

I'd spend every glorious moment side by side with you.

Recalling all the years we shared and memories we made,

how grateful I would be to have just one more day.

Where the tears I've shed are not in vain and only fall in bliss, so many things I'd let you know about the days you've missed.

I wouldn't have to make pretend you never went away,

how grateful I would be to have just one more day.

When that day came to a close and the sun began to set,

a million times I'd let you know I never will forget.

The heart of gold you left behind when you entered Heaven's gate,

how grateful I would be to have just one more day.
