Reflections of His Life

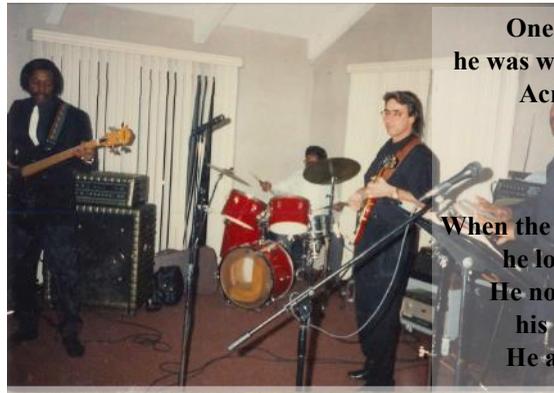

Kim Lavonne Peeler was born September 6, 1956 in Norbon, Missouri to Lily (McCorkle) Thompson and John King.

He was a lifetime resident of Kansas City, Missouri and graduated from the Kansas City Missouri School District.

Kim was a lifetime member of AWB Band and was known as, "P-Funk Peeler". He was once featured on the Jay Leno Show. Kim was loved by many and will be missed by plenty.

He departed this life on Friday, September 2, 2022. His mother, Lily Thompson; father, John King, and sister, Gloria Fitchett all precedes him in death

He leaves to cherish his memory his significant other, Yuvonne Horrid; two sons, Lavonne Peeler and Kevin Peeler; brothers, James Thompson (Willett) and Timothy Thompson; uncles, Ronald McCorkle and James McCorkle; aunts, Delores and Eurstene; several brothers in-law, and sisters in-law; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it:

"LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way.

But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints.

I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied:

"My son, my precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."
