

*Weep not for me though I am gone
Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's at rest
There is no need for tears
For with your love I was blessed
For all those many years
There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear now all is gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life

In Loving Memory

Genevieve Weiss, 100, New Salem, died July 31, 2021, at Elm Crest Manor, New Salem.

Genevieve was born April 18, 1921, at the family farmstead of Carl G. and Anna (Smeder) Rask, in Morton County. She attended country school through the eighth grade. She met Arthur Weiss at the Big Heart Hall and the two were later married on November 16, 1941. Genevieve worked side by side on the farm with Arthur until May 1979 when they retired from farming and moved into New Salem. She then worked as the custodian at Peace Church for over 20 years.

Genevieve loved baking, cooking, and canning the produce from her garden. She enjoyed crocheting and making afghans and doilies. Above all, her family was her greatest pride and joy and came before everything else. Little kids, especially her grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren brought a smile to her face. Genevieve was a woman of strong faith, her church was always very important to her.

Blessed to have shared in her life is her son, Arlon (Arlene) Weiss, New Salem; 8 grandchildren, Arthur (Vicky) Weiss, Charlotte (Mitchell) Erhardt, Allen (Peggy) Weiss, Candi (Stuart) Glass, Angela (Tom) Henke, Adam (Penny) Weiss, James (Rebecca) Just, and Joel (Kristen) Just; 16 great grandchildren; and 6 great-great grandchildren.

Genevieve was preceded in death by her husband, Arthur, in 2004; her parents; daughter and son-in-law, Carlene (Jerry) Just; brothers, Ted (Esther), Arnold (Dorothy), and Carl W. (Lucille); and sisters, Esther (Murphy) Christianson, Julia (Bill) Glardon, Gladys (Floyd) Duncan, Gerda (Emil)(Bill) Toman, Alice (Frank) Toman, and Beverly (Roy) Hogan.
