

LITTLE ANGELS

When God calls little children
 To dwell with Him above,
 We mortals sometime question
 The wisdom of His love.
 For no heartache can compare
 With the death of one small child
 Who does so much to make our world,
 Seem wonderful and mild.
 Perhaps God tires of calling
 Aged to His fold,
 So He picks a rosebud
 Before it can grow old.
 God knows how much we need them,
 And so He takes but few
 To make the land of Heaven
 More beautiful to view.
 Believing this is difficult
 Still somehow we must try,
 The saddest word mankind knows
 Will always be "Goodbye".
 So when a little child departs,
 We who are left behind,
 Must realize God loves children,
 Angels are hard to find.

*If you carry God in your heart
 every day,
 He will carry you through the trouble of this world and one day He will have his Angels Carry you home to be with Him forever.*

Remembering the life of...

Ricardo Maurice Littleghost Jr. was just a happy child, always smiling. Junior had so many things he loved: playing with his brother and sister, Spiderman and cars, he was always wearing spiderman clothes, being with his Grandma Marilyn, he was always by her side, even loved sleeping right beside her at night too, riding his tricycle, he was always riding it inside and outside the house, his Dad chasing him around the house and this would make him laugh uncontrollably, counting numbers and singing ABC's with his Mom, listening to the music his Mom played, he loved rock especially, drinking coffee with his Dad, even though he wasn't suppose to, going through White Horse Hill with his family, going through the nature trail walk, eating salads with his Mom. Ricardo Jr. and Jasper would jump on the trampoline, swing on the swing set together, play with dinosaurs and cars. Ricardo Jr. and Jaylani would always be fighting over one toy all the time, in the end they always forgave each other. Junior loved making his siblings laugh.

Junior always said thank you no matter what, he was always thankful.
