

Jack Denver Clark, 74, passed away December 4, 2014 at Tristar Summit Medical Center in Hermitage , TN.

Jack was born on December 8, 1939 in Jamestown, TN. He was of the Baptist faith, He enjoyed working on his computer, working crossword puzzles and mowing his yard. He loved to travel and was an avid UK fan. In his younger years, his fondest memories were of playing basketball with his brother Jim. He was best known for his easy, warm soft smile.

Jack was a Vietnam veteran serving as a Staff Sergeant in the United States Army. He spent time working with other veterans to ensure they received the benefits they deserved. He continued even in death to serve others by donating his organs to the Organ Donor Services. He leaves behind the ultimate gift of life to no fewer than two other people.

Jack was preceded in death by his mother and father, Lent and Lillian Clark and brother Murle Clark.

Jack will be forever the "angel" of his loving wife of 33 years, Emma Clark and missed by all his family and friends. Other survivors include two brothers Jim Clark and Curtis Bryant; sister Karen Elinger and several half brothers and sisters.

Funeral service will be 1:00 p.m. Tuesday, December 9, 2014 at Hardy and Son Funeral Home, Smiths Grove Chapel. Burial in Happy Valley Memorial Gardens with Military Honors conducted by the Glasgow DAV. Visitation 4--8 p.m. Monday at the funeral home.

Send Condolences