

Proverbs 31 : 10-31

Who can find a virtuous wife? For her worth is far above rubies.
The heart of her husband safely trusts her; So he will have no lack of gain.

She does him good and not evil all the days of her life.

She seeks wool and flax, and willingly works with her hands.

She is like the merchant ships, She brings her food from afar.

She also rises while it is yet night, and provides food for her household and a portion for her maidservants.

She considers a field and buys it; from her profits she plants a vineyard.

She girds herself with strength, and strengthens her arms.

She perceives that her merchandise is good, and her lamp does not go out by night.

She stretches out her hands to the distaff, and her hand holds the spindle.

She extends her hand to the poor, yes, she reaches out her hands to the needy.

She is not afraid of snow for her household, for all her household is clothed with scarlet.

She makes tapestry for herself; her clothing is fine linen and purple.

Her husband is known in the gates, when he sits among the elders of the land.

She makes linen garments and sells them, and supplies sashes for the merchants.

Strength and honor are her clothings; She shall rejoice in time to come.

She opens her mouth with wisdom, and on her tongue is the law of kindness.

She watches over the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: "Many daughters have done well, but you excel them all."

Charm is deceitful and beauty is passing, but a woman who fears the Lord, she shall be praised.

Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Obituary

Cliffie L. (Roberts) Dyess Tucker, age 92, of Hainesville, passed away at home on April 27, 2024. Cliffie was a beloved mother, Grammy, sister, and friend to many.

Cliffie was born in Hainesville, Texas on December 5, 1931 to Oliver Roberts and Myrtle (Byrd) Roberts. Cliffie's journey through life was marked by a deep commitment to service. She began her career as a teller at Mineola Federal Savings & Loan in the 1960's and devoted over three decades to the institution before retiring in 1992. Her professional beliefs in hard work and integrity left a lasting impact on all those she encountered.

Beyond her career, Cliffie exemplified what it means to be a Godly woman. Her faith was not just a part of her life; it defined her character. She dedicated her life to serving others, teaching Sunday school, singing in the church choir, singing solos, and leading music when she was younger. Cliffie found comfort in reading her Bible and watching Gaither videos. Her faith was steadfast, and her love for her family was unwavering.

Throughout her life, Cliffie found great joy in her roles as a mother and grandmother, earning the endearing title of "Grammy" to her beloved grandkids and great grandkids. As a single parent, she raised her two children in a Godly home, depending solely on her Lord and Savior.

She greets in Heaven her parents, Oliver and Myrtle Roberts; husband, A.J. "Buddy" Tucker; two brothers, Byron D. Roberts and Johnny M. Roberts; sister, Shirley J. Roberts Low; son, Ronald Wayne Dyess; and son-in-law, Jerry L. Garrett.

Left to cherish her memory is her daughter, Cecilia A. Dyess Garrett of Hainesville; daughter-in-law, Janice S. Edwards Dyess of Hainesville; brother, Fines Oliver Roberts Jr. of Dallas; sister-in-law, Betty J. Puckett Roberts of Gilmer; brother-in-law, Jim D. Low of Tyler; grandson, Matthew W. Dyess and wife Chloe Roberts Dyess and two great grandsons, Greyson and Conor Dyess of Saltillo; and several nieces, nephews, step-children, and step-grandchildren.
