

William George Kubischta was born October 9, 1923 in Dickinson, the son of Joe and Victoria (Sykora) Kubischta. Growing up, he attended school through the ninth grade. At the age of 21, William became a soldier, serving in the US Army during WWII. He was honorably discharged as a T/5 in 1946. After being discharged, William returned to Dickinson where he owned a gas station. William met and married his soul mate, Beatrice Polensky on October 12, 1950 at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Dickinson. Their marriage was blessed with eight children. Following the wedding, they moved to the Hanel farm northwest of New Hradec. In 1955, they purchased their own farm southwest of Manning. William enjoyed spending his time fishing, hunting, and playing cards. He loved spending time with his family, especially with his grandchildren. William was always willing to give a helping hand to all of his neighbors. He was a member of the KC and St. Patrick's Catholic Church. The family would like to thank the staff and residents at Benedict Court for making William feel like family. William is survived by his children, Linda Zins, Cindy (Dave Heidt) Dvorak, William M. Kubischta Jr., Patti (Paul) Pacht, Bob (Mary) Kubischta, Karen Zastoupil, Dennis (Reyne) Kubischta, Susie (Bruce) Stroh all of Dickinson; 11 grandchildren, Marcella Dvorak, Kimberly (Andy) Hanson, Jennifer (Alex) Baptista, Sarah (William Bengtson) Kubischta, Clint (Jennifer Srock) Pacht, Jodi Pacht, Eric (Alyssa) Kubischta, Lori Zastoupil, Shawn Zastoupil, Zachary (Amanda) Stroh, Paige Stroh; 8 great-grandchildren, Mac, Chase, Priya, Remy, Tate, Sophia, Ethan and Evan; great-great-grandchildren, Aubryanna and Bryson; several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, Joe and Victoria Kubischta; wife, Beatrice; brothers, Jim, Ludwig and George Kubischta; sisters, Dorothy and Marie; sons-in-law, Richard Dvorak and Al Zins.

*Dad
 When the angels came to get you,
 They took along a piece of us all.
 So while you're looking down from heaven,
 Don't let your teardrops fall.
 'Cuz you raised us good, you raised us proud,
 Our head will stay high,
 Our hearts will ache, tears will fall,
 But this is not good bye.
 Your body may have left us,
 Your spirit never will,
 We are who we are because of you,
 Our memories with you will never stay still.
 Your legacy will go on forever
 Through the children's actions, words and ways.
 Your soft heart, strong will, and talents
 You've passed to us along the way.
 Dad, continue watching over us,
 We will miss you night and day
 But go now, Dad, to be with your parents,
 We will meet you there someday.*
