

Moving On
By Marvin Henke

*I believe that when I die, I won't just go to sleep
But move on to a better world, commitments there to keep
And I will meet with long lost kin who'll greet me at the door.*

We'll have a grand reunion like you've never seen before.

*The cares and worries of this world will simply fade away
And pain and sorrow disappear and all will be OK
Reflecting on my life I'll have some pride and some regret,
But this I'll know; I've just moved on; it isn't over yet.*

*The human race was never meant to live out life in vain
But profit from experience through sunshine, wind and rain.
I'm flawed and I'm imperfect but one thing I know for sure,
With help from my redeemer there will surely be a cure.*

*What seems so real throughout this life may only be a dream
And death may be a wake-up call, not quite the way it seems.
I must account for every thought and action, word and deed;
This is the Mother of all Tests – God help me to succeed!*

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness as evidenced in thought and deed during their time of loss and for your attendance at this service
