Dear Brother,
Lord knows I've felt pain, but you hurt me the worst.
I never thought I'd see the day, you'd ride in a hearse.
Brother, brother, brother, how do I carry on?
How do I live my life, when a part of me is gone?
I'm so incomplete, we were supposed to stick together.
How does that work, when you're gone forever?
I know you needed me and I need you even more.
I'm sorry baby brother, more than I've ever been before.
My heart is broken, my life is forever changed.
My soul is hurting, I'll never be the same.
We were supposed to grow old and tell our kids, how we protected one another.
I should have been there to save you,
I'm so sorry brother.
Lord please give me strength, take this pain away.
When I don't think I can make it,
just carry me through the day.
I'll never be complete, there'll always will be a void.
Never thought in a million years,
you'd hurt me like this Lloyd.
And Lord knows I've felt some pain
but you hurt me the worst.
Never thought I'd see the day, you'd ride in hearse.

By, Tanae Chase

Reflections of His Life

Lloyd was born June 10, 1991. Lloyd was a uplifting high spirited person. He had a way of bringing joy and laughter to any space he entered. In school he always won the class clown award.

Lloyd was educated in the Kansas City MO school district. He graduated from Van Horn high school in May 2009. Immediately following high school Lloyd enlisted in the US Marine Corps June of 2009. Lloyd was deployed to Afghanistan in 2009 which changed his life forever.

Lloyd loved spending time with family and friends. Where he was known as the "THE TURN UP KING" however becoming a father was the highlight of his life.

Lloyd started his new journey on July 7, 2023, where he was greeted with open arms by both his parents, Cleatus Vaughn and Charisse Yvette Bronston.

Lloyd shall be forever missed and remembered by his son, Zelgin Apollo Bronston of Richmond MO; sisters, Quiana D. Lawrence of St. Louis, MO and Sosha Bronston; brothers, Brynn Lee Hooker, Marteion Ewing, Dominique Ewing, Carlando Moore, Tavion Newton, and Alpatrino Fortune; grand -parents, Alfred C.
