“The Rose”

Some say love it is a river
That drowns the tender reed
Some say love, it is a razor
That leaves the soul to bleed
Some say love, it is a hunger
An endless aching need.
I say love, it is the flower
And you, its only seed
It's the heart afraid of breaking
That never learns to dance
It's the dream afraid of waking That never takes the chance It's the one who won't be taking Who cannot seem to give
And the soul afraid of dying
That never learns to live
When the night has been to lonely
And the road has been to long
And you think that love is only For the lucky and the strong Just remember in the winter
Far beneath the bitter snows Lies the seed that with sun's love
In the spring becomes the rose.

In memory of Vickie Lynn Walker on behalf of her family

Life is a gift from God, the family and friends he puts in our life to share our journey the joy, opportunities, and the hardship, each person has a purpose in our life. Vickie was a mother, grandmother, mentor, and a light in shining armor to those on her path that had lost their way or just needed solitude.

By: Margaret Braddy Barr, Niece

The Lord's Prayer

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not be in want,
He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters,
he restores my soul.
He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for you are with me;
Your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

- Psalm 23

Loved Jesus and her family. Faithful until the end.

About Vickie Lynn Walker

Vickie Lynn Walker was born and raised in Alba, TX into big family of 8 sisters and 8 brothers. Most of her living years were spent in Winnsboro, TX.

At the age of 28 she married the love of her life, John Warren. Vickie had four children of her own, seven grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Vickie was a hard worker. She loved dance, enjoyed fishing, and was a great southern cook. She loved "whatnaughts" and kept a collection of all kinds. She was a simple woman, purple was her favorite color, she was a head strong lady, a good friend, and mentor. She never knew a stranger and in times of need she was a light in shining armor to many she befriended.

She leaves behind lots of cherished memories and memorable quotes she used to say. She loved Jesus and her family very much! She was SAVED in Jesus Christ name and is now free and dancing in the sky! She will be missed terribly.

For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God and all are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus. Romans 3:23-24 Amen!
