

FISHING WITH GOD

When I meet my Maker, and pass through those pearly gates.

I'm sure I'll be in awe, at a land so great.

Where vast fields blossom in so many colors, so pure and grand.

Truly I'll know I've entered, The promise land.

Clear lakes of blue shining like, diamonds in the sky.

I'll stare in wonder releasing, A contented sigh.

Walking with God by my side,

He's known all of my flaws, I have nothing to hide.

And yet, His love He's continued to shower me with.

Still in heaven, He continues to give.

With pleasure I cast my line, into the deepest depths.

I'm amazed at yet another of, The promises He's kept.

Within moments, my line grows taut.

I almost laugh in pleasure, at the trophy I've caught.

Heaven is one place, I'll never have to say;

You should have seen the one that got away.

James M. Schultz, 82, of Mandan, passed away October 28, 2018 at Sanford Health, Bismarck.

James was born to Ted and Ann (Bacher) Schultz on September 22, 1936 in Fort Rice where he was raised, educated and ranched. On May 31, 1965 he married Sharon Maczkowicz. They ranched together and raised their family until his retirement in 1980.

The love and appreciation of nature was evident in his focus of everyday life. A determined hard worker as a rancher at a time when many of today's conveniences were not available, this required hard physical labor. He was a perfectionist; this was always displayed whether on the ranch or in his weed free yard and garden. Even with his well-deserved retirement, he was an avid fisherman on the Missouri, a skilled hunter of pheasant, grouse and deer was on his list of priorities. His focus as a hunter was to acquire a trophy non-typical buck.

His great memory for details served him well as a talented story teller. Above all his family was central throughout his life. He always looked forward to spending time with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. These memories of James will be a part of all who knew him as an example as we go on with our lives.

James will be deeply missed by his wife of 53 years, Sharon; daughter, Lori (Nolan) Ternes of Stanton, ND; sons, Wade (Tina) of St. Mary's ID, Scott (Doneta) of Mandan; 7 grandchildren, Laura, Ashley, Elias, Tiffany, James, Noah and Wendy; 5 great-grandchildren, Lacie, Gage, Ryder, Jaxton and Riley; sisters-in-law, Marlene Schultz of Wolf Point, MT and Sally Schultz of Mandan.

He is preceded in death by his parents; brothers, Alvin (Katheryn), Harold and Fred; sisters, Vivian (Leonard) Helfrich and Betty Dillon.

Following the burial the family invites you for lunch and fellowship in the Spirit of Life Activity Center.
