

In Loving Memory

Maynard L. Hamberger
1928 ~ 2021

The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want; he makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters; he restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies; thou anointest my head with oil, my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Maynard Leonard Hamberger was born May 31, 1928 to Adolph and Emma (Pesek) Hamberger on the family farm southwest of Scotland where he spent his childhood.

Maynard married Irene Kaul March 1, 1949. They lived on the farm east of Lesterville and raised 7 children. He worked on the farm his whole life. Maynard raised cattle, hogs, and chickens. He retired in 2011 and moved to Yankton in 2016.

Maynard loved fishing, fixing cars and tractors, and he liked dancing waltz and polka. He also liked playing pinochle and the accordion.

Maynard passed away Friday, July 16, 2021, at the Sister James Care Center at Yankton, at the age of 93.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife; brothers and sisters Emil (Laura) Hamberger, Clara (Sylvester) Walz, Lawrence (Libby) Hamberger, Donald (Luetta) Hamberger, Marcella (Donald) Kolda, Elmer (infant brother), Verne (Gladys) Hamberger and brother-in-law Calvin Rehurek.

Grateful for having shared in his life are his seven children, Allen (Linda) Hamberger of Sioux Falls, Leslie Hamberger of Menno, Eugene Hamberger of Yankton, Agnes (Dave) Sawyer of Springfield, Missouri, Amy Hamberger of Scotland, Brian (Pamela) Hamberger of Yankton and Ann (William “Bill”) Hochstein of Hartington, Nebraska; seven grandchildren, Jake Miller, Gena Miller, Trevor (Alesha) Schultz, Brynlyn Hamberger, Emma Hamberger, Wesley (Megan) Hochstein, and Kyla (Zach) Spahr; four great-grandchildren, Reagan Miller, Cale Miller, Addisyn Schultz and Dex Spahr; and his sister, Lorraine Rehurek of Tyndall.
