

"El Shaddai"

El Shaddai, El Shaddai
El Alyon na Adonai
Age to age You're still the same
By the power of the name
El Shaddai, El Shaddai
Erkamka na Adonai
We will praise and lift You high,
El Shaddai

Through Your love and through the ram
You saved the son of Abraham Through the power of Your hand
Turned the sea into dry land
To the outcast on her knees
You were the God who really sees
And by Your might
You set Your children free.

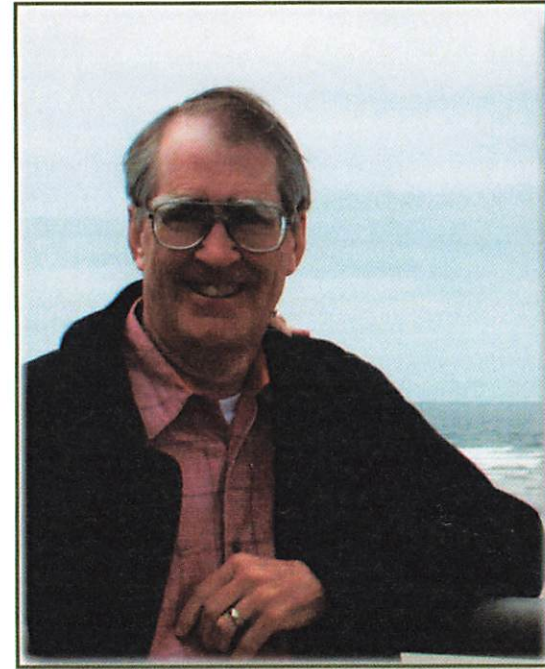

El Shaddai, El Shaddai
El Elyon na Adonai
Age to age You're still the
same
By the power of the name
El Shaddai, El Shaddai
Erkamka na Adonai
We will praise and lift You high,
El Shaddai

Through the years You made it clear
That the time of Christ was near Though the people couldn't see What Messiah ought to be Through Your Word contained the plan
They just would not understand Your most awesome work was done
Through the frailty of Your Son

El Shaddai, El Shaddai
El Elyon na Adonai
Age to age You're still the same
By the power of the name
El Shaddai, El Shaddai
Erkamka na Adonai
I will praise You 'til I die,
El Shaddai

El Shaddai, El Shaddai
El Elyon na Adonai
Age to age You're still the same
By the power of the name
El Shaddai, El Shaddai
Erkamka na Adonai
I will praise You 'til I die,
El Shaddai

Life Legacy

Mack Baygent Payne, 81, of Woodway Texas passed away on November 15, 2024, at Mercy House-Living Springs Memory Care surrounded by his loving family.

Mack was born June 9, 1943, to Malcom and Pearl Payne in Pecos, Texas. Mack graduated from Pecos High (1961); Schreiner Institute (1963); Baylor University (1965); University of Texas Medical Branch (1969). While in Galveston, Mack met his future beloved wife of 54 years, Judy McDowell. They were married on September 5, 1970, in Galveston. Mack completed his first year of medical internship at Akron General Hospital, Akron, Ohio before joining the U.S. Army in November, 1970. He served as an Aviation Medical Officer (Flight Surgeon), in Vietnam and Ft. Lewis, Washington.

In 1973, Mack and Judy moved to Waco, Texas where he completed his Family Practice Residency in 1975. He was in private practice in Bellmead, TX but the majority of his practice was at Ft. Hood. From a young age Mack had a deep personal relationship with his Savior, Jesus Christ and shared his faith through humbly serving and blessing others. He was a long-time member of Highland Baptist Church, serving in many volunteer roles. He was also a member of the Waco Senior Kiwanis Club participating with K-Kids at Provident Heights Elementary School. Most importantly he treasured his family and was a very devoted husband to Judy, devoted father to Andrea, Aaron and Andrew, and devoted grandfather to 10 wonderful grandchildren.

Mack was dearly loved by family and friends. He will always be remembered for his kind, gentle manner, his humorous one-liners, his love of music, and his steadfastness in every situation.

Mack was preceded in death by his parents, Malcom and Pearl Payne. Mack is survived by his wife, Judy; daughter Andrea Dossey (Nathan); sons, Aaron Payne (Toni) and Andrew Payne, (Olivia); well-loved grandchildren – Gavin, Grant, Madison, Lindsay, Emery, Seth, Cayden, Owen, Silas and Elena; brother Malcom Payne Jr. (Jeanetta); niece Leslie Ricketts (Alan) and other nieces, nephews, and extended family.

In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to: Highland Baptist Church Future Generations Building Campaign, 2924 Trice Ave., Waco, TX 76707 or to Care Net Pregnancy Center, 800 W. Waco Dr., Waco, TX 76701.
