Pastor's Note

PREPARE AND TEACH

by Ramon V. Baldovino

This year this bulletin space will be filled with materials drawn from a book written by Elmer Towns, Dean Emeritus of the School of Religion and Theological Seminary at Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA. It is entitled "I Am Jesus: Let's Change the World."

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the world of truth." (2 Timothy 2:15, NLT)

I am a church with human teachers and learners. Before you can teach, you must learn the lessons you would teach. The church is primarily a place of evangelism, and second, a place of education. Those who know best how to live for Christ teach best. And those who know Christ intimately teach and change lives of others. What do you know most and best about your Christian faith? How much of it have you taught? Those who know best teach others who have learned.

I am a church on a teaching mission. You will never know it all, and you will never know enough. You were born in this world with a blank slate mind. How much you learn will determine how much you will grow. And how practically you learn the Christian life will determine how effective you will live for Me.

Personal Prayer: Lord, I will read Your Word repeatedly. I will study Your Word, dividing truth into small sections to learn. I will memorize Your Word, hiding it in my heart (Psalm 119:11). Then I will meditate on Your Word, so its life principles control my life (Joshua 1:8; Psalm 1:5). Amen.

KEY THOUGHT: My church shall be a place of teaching-learning, because neither are effective until both are operative.

"Turning Hearts in the End Time"

"Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord. And he will turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers; lest I come and smite the earth with a curse."
