BE AN EXPONENTIALLY PRAYING CHURCH

by Ramon V. Baldovino

This year this bulletin space will be filled with materials drawn from a book written by Elmer Towns, Dean Emeritus of the School of Religion and Theological Seminary at Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA. It is entitled "I Am Jesus: Let's Change the World."

I am Jesus the church gathered for prayer—exponential prayer (Acts 1:24; 2:1,4). Not just another group prayer meeting, but a time of confessing sin, admitting your failures begging for spiritual power and faith to believe the Holy Spirit will come to fill with zeal and soul-winning evangelism. The early church prayed with boldness, and the room was shaken. Ultimately they were accused of "turning the world upside down." (Acts 17:6) What does that mean? The gospel transforms people and then changed life and family. When that is added to a whole church, a neighborhood is turned upside down. Do you believe the church can change the world? Since I indwell a person (Galatians 2:20), let Me shine through you into your family and world.

I am Jesus who promised "if you ask anything in My name, I will do it" (John 14:14) So what is in your prayer list? Are you praying for lost members to be saved? Have you prayed for opportunities to witness to them, to get them under the gospel preaching? Everything in your walk with Me begins with prayer. First pray to know Me. Then pray to be filled with great faith; and third, pray to be an aggressive soul winner. Ask for revival in your church—then people will get saved. "You do not have because you do not ask." (James 4:2)

Key Thought: The Great Commission expects great results in your church, so you and all the church must give yourselves to prayer.

Today the Lord's messenger, Andrew Wallace, will highlight the need for all followers of Jesus to be involved in fulfilling His Great Commission through the equipping, empowering, and emboldening leading of the Spirit of Christ.
