Obituary

Trenton Dennis entered eternal glory on Monday, September 27, 2021 to be with our Lord and Saviour, at the age of 53. He was born in Houston, Texas on December 30, 1967, the first child of Robert and Delores Dennis. As the eldest son, many may be surprised to know he was a truly gifted singer, with a voice that could easily compare to Al Green and even Maxwell, only those closest to him can fondly remember this special talent. Trent was a spirited husband and father who often brought laughter and jokes to his home. His close family and friends new that Trent had a fine appreciation for home cooked meals, good food and eating well on any occasion. With his grill fired up in the backyard Trent loved to barbeque any assortment of meats to perfection and enjoyment for himself and anyone around.

Trent met Amy when they were in high school. The two married on March 9, 1990 at the youthful age of twenty two in Houston. The two were joined in union by Texas Congressman Al Green, of course because Trent loved the Congressman's name. Trent and Amy celebrated thirty one years of marriage this year.

Trent studied and completed his undergraduate degree in Business Management from the University of Phoenix. In his professional career, he worked for the past several years on operational and mechanical projects with many industrial engineering solution companies, in the oil and gas industry. In addition to his business side, Trent worked well with children, he served faithfully for a season as a children's ministry teacher, at The Church at Bethel's Family and was always celebrated by his students for his funny and playful spirit.

As a hobby Trent enjoyed sports and cheering for his favorite football team, the San Francisco 49ners. If you ever received a text message from Trent, it was always sealed with the signature representing his beloved team. When Trent was not watching sports or enjoying a James Bond marathon, he could be found playing basketball on any given weekend for hours during his younger years, but recently settled into the sport of golf. Trent and his playful, funny and comical personality was known and greatly respected well at the Quail Valley Golf Course where he spent most weekends, perfecting his new found passion of golfing.

We rest wholeheartedly in the assurance that our beloved son, brother, husband, father, uncle, great uncle, nephew and cousin could not be any closer to God, than now in His everlasting presence.

*To my beloved Husband
From your Wife*

After 31 years of marriage, my life has forever been changed. Though not all moments were perfect, my love for you always remained.

I'll always think of you, when I hear the Isley Brothers play. And I'll smile to myself remembering, all the funny things you would say. Thank you for being a good father, who worked hard and gave us his all. And for those who didn't know, you were a man of gentle spirit (just with a rigid exterior wall). Worthwhile was the time I had with you that, I would do this life all over again. You are forever my love, my husband, my friend.

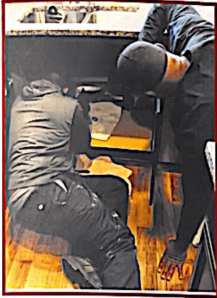

Your loving wife,
Amy Dennis

To my beloved Father

From your Son

I wonder how I am going to get through today... Getting through your funeral reminds me that you are not here with us... Processing your loss has been difficult, at some moments I feel numb. But I remember that God is with us and we are holding on to His peace, trusting God's peace to surpass my understanding while trying to grasp the absence of you.

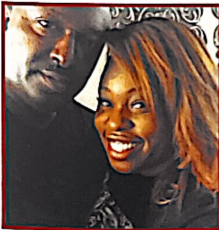

Reminiscing about you now and hearing stories about you and your life now and I wish I could sit down with you and hear it firsthand from you all over again. You were the laughter and fun anywhere you were. Dad, I want everyone to know what you meant to me.

Now it's my turn to be the man you taught me to be in our family. I pray to make you proud.

Love Always,
Man

To my beloved Daddy...

From your Daughter

I'm going to miss your long talks about how important Football is. I'm going to miss our laughs and the looks we give each other when we see something crazy in public. I'm going to miss you watching movies with me until we fall asleep. I'm going to miss you never allowing me to have personal space. I'm going to miss your jokes and our disagreements. I'm going to miss watching you eat so MUCH! I never thought I was going to say "I'm going to miss you" so soon.

You were my first love, my movie buddy, and my best friend. I will never forget the memories we have together Daddy. I pray that I make you proud up there, because I know you raised me to be strong and wise.

I'm going to miss you Daddy...

Love Always,
Stinks
