From the pen of Inspiration

Christ has promised the gift of the Holy Spirit to His church, and the promise belongs to us as much as to the first disciples.

We should pray as earnestly for the descent of the Holy Spirit as the disciples prayed on the day of Pentecost. If they needed it at that time, we need it more today.

The measure of the Holy Spirit we receive will be proportioned to the measure of our desire and the faith exercised for it, and the use we shall make of the light and knowledge that shall be given to us . . .

The Holy Spirit imparts love, joy, peace, strength, and consolation; it is as a well of water springing up into everlasting life. The blessing is free to all. (The Faith I Live By, p. 53.)
