

Scott R. Jordan

If you are asked to describe a man, you do your best to help others understand. I would say he was a loving husband, a great father, and an awesome friend. The kind of brother anyone would be proud to have. He was a leader to many, but a follower to none. He truly followed God's only son. He shared his faith with all who would lend an ear, making sure you knew the truth for the end could be near. I heard someone say once he should be left alone, but my dear brother told him of his eternal home.

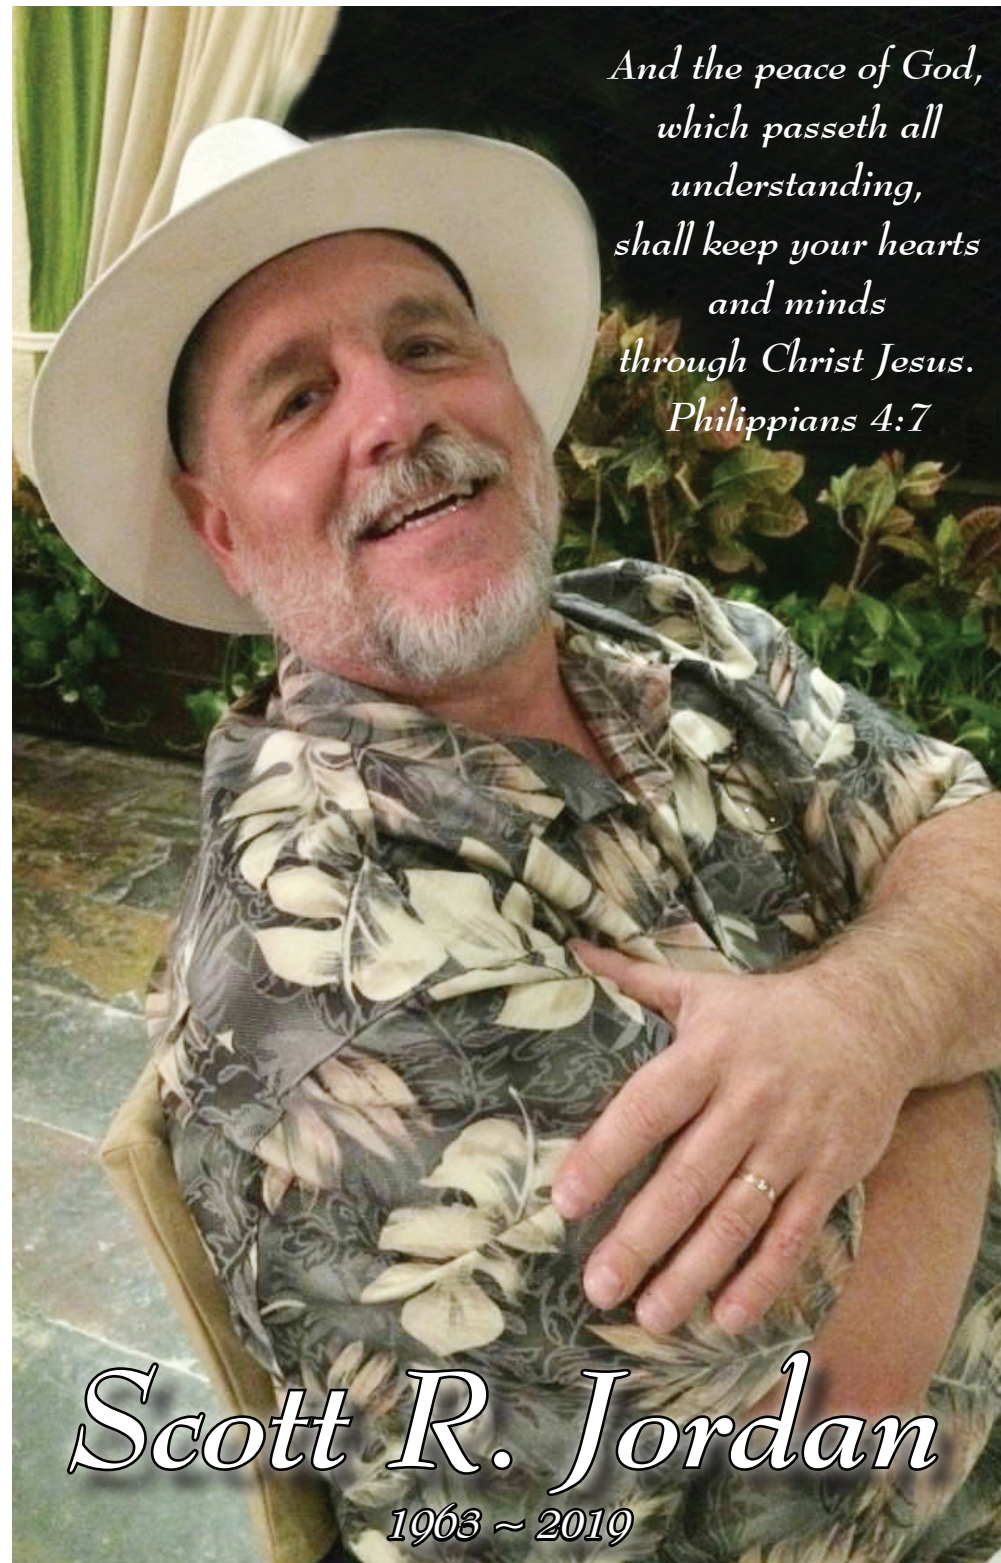

He was bigger than life for all the world could see, but the man inside meant the most to me. A man of faith, patient and kind, but he always had a good joke close to mind. He loved to laugh and have fun, these awesome traits he passed along to his son. His love for his daughters was plain to see, he showed them the example of how their husband should be. He taught them a great love for mankind, what a tremendous legacy he has left behind.

His love for wife was an example to see; he honored and loved her unconditionally. Their love for each other was a joy to see, he was such a special part of our family. He loved my sister who is so precious to me; He was her soul mate and closest friend. He professed his love to her right to the end. All the words fall short to help you understand, but to say it plainly Scott R. Jordan was truly a Godly man.

*I wish I could turn back the clock. I'd find you sooner and love
you longer.*

*And the peace of God,
which passeth all
understanding,
shall keep your hearts
and minds
through Christ Jesus.
Philippians 4:7*

Scott R. Jordan
1963 ~ 2019

Scott R. Jordan, 56, of Bismarck, ND, died unexpectedly on March 4, 2019 at Sanford Health in Bismarck.

Reverend Scott R. Jordan was born February 14, 1963 in Seattle, WA to Bruce and Margaret (Knutson) Jordan. In keeping with Scott's untraditional ways, here is all the information you need. Scott first loved Jesus with everything in him, and both his family and church family second. He adored his wife and children and was over the moon for his grandchildren. He graduated from Baptist Bible College in Springfield, MO and went on to get his master's degree at Grand Canyon University. Scott was the Discipleship Pastor at Oasis Southwest Baptist Church in Amarillo, Texas, from February of 1998 until October of 2003. He pastored the Beach Evangelical Church from November of 2003 to October of 2005. In November of 2005, he and his family moved to Bismarck where he pastored The Bridge Church until his passing. Scott loved others and wanted everyone he knew to know and have a personal relationship with Jesus. He left a legacy of love, faith, and strength to all those he knew. It is the collective belief of the family that it was not the aortic dissection that caused his death, it was all the dog gone snow!

Scott is survived by his wife, Linda Jordan of Bismarck; four children, Kelsey Jordan of New Philadelphia, PA, Aaron Jordan (Kasandra), Promise Jordan, and his baby girl, Allison Jordan, all of Bismarck; three grandchildren, Riley, Conner, and Layla Bean; his father, Bruce Jordan (Barb); brother, Steve Jordan (Carolyn); sister, Jennifer Jacoby (David); and nephew, Wyatt.

He was preceded in death by all his grandparents and his mother, Margaret Knutson Jordan.

In lieu of flowers, memorials are preferred to The Bridge Church (929 N. 14th St., Bismarck, ND 58501). In his passing, Pastor Scott would want to know that his congregation is financially cared for.
