

Susanna T. Dasovick was born on April 26, 1919 in Dickinson, the daughter of Nicholas and Elizabeth Bartel. She attended St. Joseph's Catholic grade School and Dickinson High School. She began working at an early age at the NYA Program during the 1930s. It was at a country dance that she met John G. Dasovick. The two were married on November 4, 1940 at the St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Dickinson. The couple built and made their home next to Susanna's parents, and it was here where they raised their five children. Over the years Susanna worked as a clerk at various stores in Dickinson, including Excel Cleaners, JC Penney, and Woolworths. Sue stayed busy and enjoyed volunteering in the area schools, RSVP, Roosevelt Elementary, and various other organizations. She was a member of St. Ann's Auxiliary, Catholic Daughters, Christian Mothers, Homemakers Club, and German Singers. She never drove, but loved to walk wherever she needed to go. Sue was an avid reader and loved word search puzzles and bingo. She was very fond of sunflowers, trees, fashion, chocolate, and poetry. She played cards and especially loved Solitaire. She enjoyed watching Wheel of Fortune, local sports, and was always up on current events. She was a classy dressed lady whenever she went out, even during her time at St. Benedict's. She was very faithful in her Catholic faith. Many of her fashionable outfits she sewed herself, often making clothes for her children and grandchildren. Numerous dishtowels and dishcloths were embroidered or crocheted, which are very cherished by her family. Mom lived life to the fullest. Although widowed at age 65, she made the most of her life and remained very independent into her 103rd year. Mom was very sharp, quick witted, humorous and very observant with her keen eye sight. Activities at St. Benedict's were a must for Sue, participating in all. She participated in weekly mass. Mom was an inspiration for all who knew her. What made Mom the happiest, were her family, her faith, and her love of life. She will be sorely missed by her family who loved her dearly. Special thanks to St. Benedict's Health center, activities staff and all members of unit three. Rest in peace, Mom. Susanna is survived by her children, John "Jim" (Mary) Dasovick of Bismarck, ND, Bob (Trudy) Dasovick of Renton, WA, Judy (Kevin) Gabriel of Strasburg, ND, Mary Dasovick of Bismarck, ND and Daniel (Kris) Dasovick of Dickinson, ND; Grandchildren: Dan Dasovick, Heather (Brandon) Hoff, Jeff (Amanda) Dasovick, Chris (Angie) Dasovick, Jennie Dasovick, Becca (Andrew) Voorhees, and Alex Dasovick; Great-Grandchildren: Cailey, Jillian, Emilee, Lily, Jameson, Grace, Emma, Samuel, Elijah, Bridger. Nieces & Nephews, Karen (Gary) Price, Donna Pasicznyk, Don (Darlene) Sanders, Don Kramer and Janice Portschellar. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband John G (November 15, 1986); and all of her siblings and numerous friends.

A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says,

"Grieve not for me."

*Remember the best times,
the laughter, the song.*

The good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.

Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.

Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.

I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.

Until the day comes and we're together again.
