

A CELEBRATION OF LIFE

Moved on up a Little Higher

One a-these mornings
 Soon one morning
 I'm gonna lay down my cross
 Get me a crown
 Soon one evening
 Late in the evening
 Late in the evening
 I'm going home to live on high
 Soon as my feet strike Zion
 Lay down my heavy burdens
 Put on my robe in Glory
 Goin' home, one day, and tell my story
 I been climbing over hills and mountains
 Gonna drink from the Christian fountain
 You know, all a-God's sons and daughters, that morning
 Will be drinking that ol' healing water
 And we gonna live on forever
 We gonna live on, up in Glory after while
 I'm goin' out sight-seeing in Beulah
 March all around God's alter
 Gonna walk and never get tired
 Gonna fly, Lord, and never falter
 I'm gonna move up a little higher
 Gonna meet ol' man Daniel
 I'm gonna move up a little higher
 Gonna meet the Hebrew Children
 I'm gonna move up a little higher
 Gonna meet Paul and Silas
 I'm gonna move on up a little higher
 Gonna meet my friends and kindred
 I'm gonna move on up a little higher
 Gonna meet my loving mother
 I'm gonna move on up a little higher
 Gonna meet that Lily of the Valley
 I'm gonna feast with the Rose of Sharon
 It will be always howdy howdy
 It will be always howdy howdy
 It will be always howdy howdy
 And never goodbye
 Oh, will you be there early one morning
 Will you be there, somewhere 'round God's alter
 Will you be there, oh, when the angels shall call God's roll
 God knows I'll be waiting, hmmm
 Yes, I'll be watching somewhere 'round God's alter
 Well, I'll be waiting, oh, at the beautiful, yes, golden gates
 Well, well, soon as my feet strike Zion
 Gonna lay down my heavy burdens
 Gonna put on my robe in Glory
 I'm going home, one day, tell my story
 I been climbing over hills and mountains
 I'm gonna drink from the Christian fountain
 You know all God, God's sons and daughters that mornin'
 Will drink that ol' healing water
 Meet me there, early one morningj
 Meet me there, somewhere 'round the alter
 Meet me there, oh, when the angels shall call God's roll.

A Celebration of Her Love

*"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith."
II Timothy 4:7*

Sister Rosie Mae Robinson Alston was born on November 16, 1940, in Terrell County, Georgia, to the late Maggie Lucille Bronner. She was the eldest of twelve children.

Reared in Terrell County, Sister Rosie attended Terrell County High School. She spent her working years as a housekeeper. Her spiritual life led her to Sherwood Baptist Church in Albany, Georgia, where she became a faithful member and served in the hospitality ministry.

At her home on Thursday, November 17, 2022, she transitioned to her heavenly home. In addition to her mother, she was preceded in death by her grandson, Anthony Mondrell Buchanan, and two of her siblings, Corine Evans and Jimmie Lee Bronner.

A naturally sweet person with a naturally sweet spirit is how Sister Rosie will be remembered. Her love was expressed not only by her smile and how sweet she was, but also by her cooking. She said her food always tasted so good because her mother told her that she had to "always cook with love in your hands."

Precious memories will forever be etched upon the hearts of: her six children, Michael Alston (Beatrice) of Dawson, Joan Alston of Warner Robins, David Alston of Kentucky, Vincent Alston of Albany, Georgia, Chereese Nkanang of Macon, Georgia, and Terry Alston of Phenix City, Alabama; her surviving brothers and sisters, Hassan Ali (Linda) of Temecula, California, Annie Ruth Laster of Dawson, Georgia, Thelma Marie McKinsey (Louis) of Clewiston, Florida, Louise Coleman of Dawson, Georgia, Johnny L. Davis, Sr., Henry Davis (Monique), Johnnie Mae Armstrong (Fred) of Albany, Georgia, Curtis James Davis of Dawson, and Freddie L. Davis of Clewiston, Florida; sixteen grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
