

Things Mom and Dad Taught Us

Positive Attitude and Positive Influence

How to be a disciple of Christ

How to let people be themselves

How to listen when you want to talk

How to enjoy giving and receiving gifts

Don't talk bad about your ward members or others

Don't make your mom sad or you will have to answer to dad

There is more than one way to do something

How to improve upon things that cannot be changed

Don't make up excuses

Education and Talents

The importance of educating yourself and others

How to do your best

The love of trying new things

You are never too old to start something new

Working

How to put your heart into your job

How to work and to never give up

How not to be boring and lazy

How to clean quickly

The value of family while doing these things

Thank you for your attendance at these services.
