Acknowledgement

The family of Wayne Grier wishes to acknowledge, with deep appreciation, the many expressions of love, generosity, and kindness, shown to us during this hour of bereavement.

May God bless you and keep you.

Remember Me

Remember me with smiles not tears,
For all the joy, through all the years.
Recall a closeness that was ours,
A love as sweet as fragrance flowers.

Don't dwell on thoughts that cause you pain,
We'll see each other once again.
I am at peace... try to believe,
It was my time, I had to leave.

But what a view I have a from here,
I see your face, I feel you near.
Follow you throughout the day
You're not alone along the way.

And when God calls you, you will be
Right by my side... right here with me.
Till then, I'll wait by heaven's door,
We'll be united evermore!

Reflection of Life

As recorded in the Book of Ecclesiastes,

“To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose:

a time to be born and time to die –

All in the fulfillment of God’s Devine Will must be done.”

Mr. Wayne Grier was born in Parrott, Georgia, to Ossie Lee and Willie Mae Grier. He was the fourth child.

At an early age, he joined Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church-Old Field in Dawson, Georgia. Attending the public schools of Terrell County, Georgia, he graduated in 1980.

Wayne was a natural nurturer. He provided care and assistance to everyone. For several years, he would spread enthusiasm and joy throughout the food service industry, where he started as a cook and later became a service manager.

On Tuesday, March 26, 2024, at Pruitt Nursing Home, Wayne earthly journey came to an end. He was preceded in death by his parents, Ossie Lee and Willie Mae Grier.

Precious memories will forever be etched upon the hearts of: four siblings, Otis Grier of Albany, GA, Willie Charles Grier of New Cumberland, PA, Gloria Wiggins of Parrott, GA, and Michael Grier of Parrott, GA; three nieces, Lakeisha (Michael) Suggs, Shaneka Wiggins, and Brittney Grier; two nephews, Anthony Brown and Tony Brown; three great-nephews, Jayden, Raiden, and Mason; several aunts, Bobbie Sue Warren, Christine (Dan Jr.), Mary Eva, Ola Mae, Annie Lois, and Carrie; an uncle, Oscar (Betty); a special friend/companion, Angela Morgan; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Recessional

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
