

Acknowledgements

We, the family of the late Essie Jones, wish to express our deepest appreciation for all acts of kindness and love shown during our time of bereavement. It means so much to know that we have friends and family that will go the extra mile. Our prayer is that God will richly bless each and every one of you.

Obituary

Essie Lee “Skacy” Jones was born in Hardeman County, TN on February 13, 1945 to the late Edd and Estella Jones.

Essie attended Allen White and Browns Schools. She confessed her religion at Johnson Chapel C.M.E. Church. Essie was a housekeeper until her health prohibited her from working.

On November 10, 2022, Essie departed from her earthly tabernacle to her heavenly home.

She was preceded in death by her brothers, William Jones, L.V. McKinney, Thomas Jones and Donell “Duck” Jones; one sister, Rosie “Ester” Jones; 6 aunts and 2 uncles on her mother's side; 4 aunts and 6 uncles on her father's side.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories, two sons, Jimmy Jones and Tracy Jones both of Whiteville, TN; two sisters, Shirley Jones of Jackson, TN and Lucy (Standford) Spencer of Bolivar, TN; one brother, Edd Jones, Jr. of Whiteville, TN; an aunt, Bessie Jarmon of Whiteville, TN; 6 grandchildren, 8 great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

For Her Day Had Come from her siblings

One day it happened, in a blink of an eye
So sadly, her life ended, without a chance to say goodbye
She was such a happy woman, with a beautiful smile
Without a care in the world, she made it worth while
She made everyone think, and played with their minds
She gave a quick wink, as their faces shined
The sisterhood has gone, with smiles and good times
No partner to sing our songs, no best friend to sing our rhymes
For her day had come, to fly off to heaven
And visit our mom, in a happy haven.
She left us all, without a goodbye kiss
She was the kind of woman, the ONE we will miss.

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that day, God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly, in death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you. you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken, And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one, The chain will link again.*

Love, Your Grandkids
