

Acknowledgement

We the family wish to extend our sincerest appreciation to our many friends for all the kindness shown during our moments of sorrow. The Lord has been good to us and we thank you for being there with us. may god forever bless and keep each of you in our prayers.

Grandma

My dearest Grandma.

With a smile so sweet and a heart so full.

Nothing for you was a handful.

You took your life and you made it grand.

I now know why everyone considered you a great, and true friend.

You always opened your home with love and joy.

You always made sure your grandkids never went home without a kiss, candy and a toy. Oh dear sweet Grandma, my life right now feels less full since you perished. I will always remember the little things that you gave to me, those things, I will always cherish. When I think about you...

I think of all the good you did and will continue to do.

My dearest Grandma, you're at peace now.

I know that your will is not done and you'll continue to watch over all of us too. I LOVE you and I

MISS you. WE ALL DO!

Now that you're gone, I promise I will always live my life to the fullest, just for you, and I promise, I will never forget you.

Reflections of Her Life

Brigitt Regina Hopkins-Whitehead was born October 29, 1961 in St. Louis, Missouri to Katie L. Hopkins and Eldridge Jr. Ray.

Brigitt was educated in the Public School District of St. Louis, Missouri. She worked for Research Medical Center. Brigitt was an accomplished food server, babysitter, and hair braider.

Brigitt never married. However, she was blessed with nine beautiful children. She enjoyed her life to the fullest. She enjoyed listening to music, dancing, singing, crossword puzzles, cooking, spending time with family/friends, and meeting new people.

Brigitt departed this life on Monday, September 5, 2022. Two daughters, Joanna Latrice Johnson, and Bridget Hopkins; father, Eldridge Jr. Ray; sister, Linda Ann Bullock; and three uncles, Ellis "Happy Jack" Hopkins, Robert Hopkins, and Jerome Bell all preceded her in death.

Brigitt leaves to cherish her memory, four daughters, Cathy Hopkins, Desiray Holman, Mary Byrd, and Teresa Hopkins; sons, Timothy Johnson, Donald Martin, and Darrell White; two step-kids, John Buford and Renee Buford; mother, Katie L. Hopkins; five sisters, Mary Davenport, Patricia Bullock, Willie Buford, Barbara Dixon, and Sally Ann Dixon; one brother, Billy Ray Dixon; grandmother, Susie Bell; six grandchildren, Ti'Annah Johnson, Timothy Johnson Jr., Kivon Hopkins, Kishon Hopkins, Romello Caldwell, and Jaydas Enloe; two great-grandkids, Aiden Hopkins and Jade Rhoads; and host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
