- SDA World Leaders met in Ukraine
this week, calling for the training of a younger generation of leaders to complete the church's mission of spreading the gospel. Several delegates cautioned during a round-table discussion that the church could not hope to maintain its identity and fulfill its mission without taking better steps to train young leaders. President Wilson stressed, "It is vital to nurture spiritual leadership in those who are growing into church leadership. In fact, you must be proactive in helping younger leaders grow into that leadership. They need to feel a huge burden for the vision of identity of the Advent movement regarding who we are, why are we here, and where are we going."
