

In Loving Memory Of
Harvey John Rozeboom

God's Farm

*God needs someone in heaven
To plow and plant the rows.
And when He calls on me,
I know that I must go.
Remember that I won't be gone,
I will just be away,
Working on God's farm
'till we're united again one day.
There will be no storms in heaven
And the fields are long and straight.
When it's time for you to join me,
I'll be waiting inside heaven's gate.
Remember, until the day arrives,
When once more our lives we'll share,
To look in the green fields growing
And you'll see me working there.*

Harvey John Rozeboom was born December 20, 1955 in Sioux Center, Iowa, the son of Cozyn and Nellie (Zomer) Rozeboom. Harvey lived near Canton, South Dakota and he worked with his father and brother LeRoy building steel grain bins. He pulled his bull rack with his semi all over the United States for 10 year. The past 17 years, Harvey lived outside Inwood, Iowa, where he farmed the land and raised cattle.

In his younger years, Harvey loved driving his TransAm! He enjoyed fishing, boating, riding his motorcycle, and watching the Dallas Cowboys play football.

Harvey passed away on Thursday, July 7, 2022 at the Centerville Care and Rehab Center in Centerville, South Dakota at the age of 66.

Harvey is survived by his daughter, Jamie (Alec) Langlo of Canton, South Dakota and their two children, Xander and Xavion; his mother, Nellie of Inwood; family members, Wilma (John) Barrett of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, LeRoy Rozeboom of Inwood, Joyce Rozeboom of Inwood, brother-in-law, Dennis Scholten of Inwood, Norma (Lloyd) Winters of Hull, Iowa and Linda Larson living in Alaska; and nephews and nieces.

Harvey was preceded in death by his father, Cozyn Rozeboom; Connie Scholten, Marcia Rozeboom, and Gary Larson; and several nephew and nieces.
