

Generations in Ministry

Friday evening, May 22, Piedmont Park Church enjoyed being the host site for College View Academy Consecration. It is always fun to see the excitement and enthusiasm of the young people, their parents and the guests that attend! It is a joyous occasion. A celebration of teamwork and individual effort! As I watch people streaming in there is bounce in their steps, animated conversations and wide smiles! How we love to be a part of the milestones in our family's and friend's lives! As we share in this experience, our prayer is that each young person who is a part of graduation this evening will, as they move on to the next level of education, always remember the encouragement to love God as their very best Friend and that they will honor the intellectual Biblical information they have received during their Seventh-day Adventist Christian school years as well as to be successful in their next venture. We Rejoice! God Bless You!

Prayer and Praise

Psalm 34:18 The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit. Memorial Day is a time to remember those who have paid the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom in giving their lives in military service. When we celebrate Memorial Day, it doesn't mean we are agreeing with governments' decisions and wars, but that we are taking time to recognize those who are willing to protect us.

God, we thank you for being there with us in the tough times. Even though on this earth you do not always work a miracle in the way we might hope, it has been seen, over and over that in everything You work with the situation to bring good in the end!

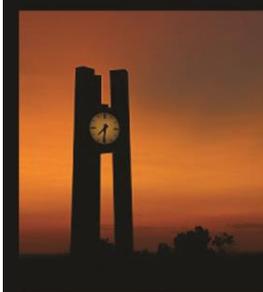

Please pray for Lexi and Noah. These are the two young kids in North Platte who were in the car that drove into the river and swept away. Noah is a relative and Lexi is the granddaughter of a high school friend. Both families are devastated by this tragedy and hoping both will be found soon. Blessed, Maria Nehls

Our prayers and condolences go out to Stanley Daw and his Family at his mother's passing. Laura let us know that Stan's mom was 88 years old. She died in British Columbia but wanted to be cremated and buried in Emo, Ontario, so the memorial service date is not chosen yet. They will choose a date when the largest number of them (she had 17 kids) can make it there. Thank you for your prayers.

Message of Encouragement

Involvement in ministry keeps children in church - by Cindy Sanders

Imagine the benefits of having the children involved in the ministry. Actually "being" the church instead of church "being done" to them? Estimates are that 40 percent of kids drop out of church in elementary and middle school. We automatically think that we lose them when they go to college, but we are losing them much earlier. So, what is the solution? After you have assessed the basic environment of your church and Bible class time, focus on using the natural tendencies God put inside each child to involve them in ministry. Some of the first words a child learns to say are, "I can do it myself." Children must feel they belong. They need a purpose beyond attending a class or worship service. Spiritual gift surveys and basic personality tests are a great way to help kids realize their potential. When kids accept Jesus as their "forever friend," they have a story to tell. Writing out a short testimony of their experience gives them confidence and boldness to share. When children know what you expect of them, they will rise to the occasion. Talk to them about the importance of consistent attendance. Give them responsibilities in the classroom and during the services. They can greet guests, lead worship songs, pray, dramatize the lesson and create illustrations. With training, some can even be responsible for sound or lighting. Resist assuming kids can't do something until you let them try. Regularly offer service projects and watch the children in your ministry blossom and mature. Self-Funded or Partially Funded Ministries at Piedmont Park SDA Church

1) Audio Ministry – The audio ministry is a huge part of what makes our Sabbath worship service enjoyable. What we hear and how we hear it is dependent on knowledgeable and attentive technicians and good audio equipment. At this time audio is acquiring funds for microphones that will pick up the congregational singing. This added benefit will make our online presence and our DVDs and CDs for Caring Heart Ministry (previously Homebound Ministry) even better! If you would like to help, please place your donation in a tithe envelope and mark it Audio.

2) Video Ministry – The video ministry is also a huge part of our weekly Sabbath worship service by recording the worship service for the Caring Heart Ministry and Membership needs, supporting the PowerPoint and media needs of our church and recording various programs for witnessing needs. At this time video is acquiring funds for a larger TV for the back of the sanctuary and for advanced software that will help them with the media presentation needs of our church. If you would like to help, please place your donation in a tithe envelope and mark it Video.

Thank you for remembering you tithe and church budget offerings as well.
