Our Precious Little Jeremiah

Jeremiah was born on April 11, 2022 in pure love to Unique Coats and Isaac Walton at Children's Hospital where he impacted lives.

Jeremiah's speech

First off, Heaven is perfect and now, so am I! Before I was born into this world I knew my MOMMY and DADA! Continue to love me perfectly, as I take care of you, Mommy and Dada! Yes my time on earth was short, but the life I lived was everlasting! From dancing with Duchess, to watching the World Cup with Grandma. I did it all! And did it with a SMILE! Mom, I'm so thankful for the times you pampered me, read to me, sang to me, and most importantly the way you loved me. Dad, I thank you, for teaching me football and all sports! I also thank you for normalizing my life on earth! And most importantly, thank you for teaching me the Lord! To my family, your love was and always will be felt! I truly thank you for fulfilling my heart with love! That love made life easier for me! As my physical body leaves this earth, my spiritual body is even more apparent! Understand that I, JJ, Momma's baby, Muffin Man, J-light, Duke, Poodie Man, Big Dawg, Jer Bear, Jeremiah Josiah Coats-Walton will always be with You! WE ARE WARRIORS!!

Jeremiah peacefully transitioned on Friday, December 23rd 2022 @10:39am in his parents' arms. His great-grand father, John Coats; Herman Cutchlow; Lloyd Shelky; Adrin Coats, April Johnson, and Demetri Brown Jr., all preceded him in the heavens.

He leaves to cherish fond memories with his grandparents, Chantal and Daniel Swinney, Janet and John Walton; aunts, and uncles, Solai Swinney, Rebecca Walton, Christina Rand, and Jacob Walton, as well as, great-grandparents, Valerie Coats, Lee Shelky, Ann & Dewey Clark, and a plethora of cousins, great-aunts, great-uncles, & friends.
