Dedication of the Grave Dwight Cook (Father-in-law)

Who is that man with the gentle face, Who in his youth kept a hectic pace,
To provide for his family, all that he could, Who is that man so giving and good?

Who is that man with the ready smile, Who always took time to sit for a while? He was there when his family needed him there, Who is that man with the gray in his hair?

Who is that man who encouraged us all, And helped us up when we took a fall, Spending a lifetime extending his hand, Who is that kind, compassionate man?

Who is that man who we all adore, The man who these words of devotion are for? I'll tell you with all of the love that I can, My Dad is that truly exceptional man.

"Poem of Life"

Life is but a stopping place, A pause in what's to be, A resting place along the road, To sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys, Different paths along the way, We all were meant to learn some things, But never meant to stay...

Our destination is a place, Far greater than we know. For some the journey's quicker, For some the journey's slow.

And when the journey finally ends, We'll claim a great reward, And find an everlasting peace, Together with the Lord.

IN LOVING MEMORY
