

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

William DeJesus Malave known as “Willy” was born August 5, 1965 in Villalba, Puerto Rico to Felix Dejesus (still living); mother Ada Myr’am Malave (Deceased). He was a fifty-seven (57) year old resident of Camden, New Jersey. William died April 18, 2023 in Camden, NJ.

William had a total of eight (8) children. William was a very hard worker, and he was very handy. His current employee position was maintenance at Beacon Realty LLC. Willy was loved not only by family; everyone that met him loved him. He was always smiling, always happy and love to share Jokes.

He was a member of Alpha & Omega 1st Pentecostal Church in Camden, NJ. William loved playing instruments, specially the guitar. William loved sharing verses of the Bible and helping others with their faith and walk with God. He was loved at his congregation, from the oldest to the youngest.

His happiness was contagious, there was never a moment where he was around that people wasn’t laughing at his jokes. William had such a big heart; he was always helping someone, and going an extra mile for everyone he knew. He will be missed by many. But his memory would be cherished forever.
