Our Mission Statement

The Filipino-American Capital Seventh-day Adventist Church exists to GO WITH JESUS IN MAKING DISCIPLES OF ALL AGES.

Pastor's Note

PARENTS, KIDS, AND PIGS!

by Ramon V. Baldovino

Joy Davidman in Smoke in the Mountain, writes:

Once there was a little old man. His hands trembled; when he ate he clattered the silverware distressingly, missed his mouth with the spoon as often as not, and dribbled a bit of his food on the tablecloth. Now he lived with his married son, having nowhere else to live, and his son's wife didn't like the arrangement.

"I can't have this," she said. "It interferes with my right to happiness." So she and her husband took the old man gently but firmly by the arm and led him to the corner of the kitchen. There they set him on a stool and gave him his food in an earthenware bowl. From then on he always ate in the corner, blinking at the table with wistful eyes.

One day his hands trembled rather more than usual, and the earthenware bowl fell and broke. "If you are a pig," said the daughter-in-law, "you must eat out of a trough." So they made him a little wooden trough, and he got his meals in that. These people had a four-year-old son of whom they were very fond. One evening the young man noticed his boy playing intently with some bits of wood and asked what he was doing. "I'm making a trough," he said, smiling up for approval, "to feed you and Momma out of when I get big." The man and his wife looked at each other for a while and didn't say anything. Then they cried a little. Then they went to the corner and took the old man by the arm and led him back to the table. They sat him in a comfortable chair and gave him his food on a plate, and from then on nobody ever scolded when he clattered or broke things. (From Craig Brian Larson and Leadership Journal)

Today is Pathfinder Sabbath and we would like to support continually the club that effectively discipled our children to become true followers and imitators of Jesus as they grow up to maturity. Let's pray for its leaders, staff, and young members as they are guided and affirmed by their parents. I can't imagine how we can succeed in our church mission without the Adventurers and Pathfinder clubs. God bless these organized tools in the Master's hands!

“The Key to Disunity”

“Having made known to us the mystery of His will,
according to His good pleasure which He purposed in Himself,
that in the dispensation of the fullness of the times
He might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven and which are on earth—in Him.”
(Ephesians 1:9, 10, NKJV)

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSES

As We Come To You In Prayer

Now, Dear Lord, as we pray, Take our hearts and minds far away,
From the press of the world all around, To Your throne where grace does abound.
May our lives be transformed by Your love, May our souls be refreshed from above.
At this moment, let people everywhere, Join us now as we come to You in prayer.

Almighty Father

Almighty Father, hear our prayer, and bless all souls that wait before Thee. AMEN.

We Have This Hope

We have this hope that burns within our hearts,
Hope in the coming of the Lord.
We have this faith that Christ alone imparts,
Faith in the promise of His word.
We believe the time is here, When the nations far and near Shall awake, and shout and sing Hallelujah! Christ is King!
We have this hope that burns within our hearts,
Hope in the coming of the Lord.
