ANNOUNCEMENTS

August 31, 2019

ATTENTION PLEASE

A snake about 4 feet long was found in our church. We will greatly appreciate that you DO NOT leave the outside doors propped open. If for any reason you need to and there is no way for you to have the carport or other doors unlocked, please have somebody stay at the door to wait for everyone that is coming in for a meeting or any other church activity so that "unwelcomed guests" do not come in. Strangers also can come in while you are in the meeting and hide somewhere in the church to vandalize our church or even hurt one of our church members that come in at night or work during the day. PLEASE do not leave outside doors propped open. Thank you very much!

OCTOBER 20-23 • YOUNG AT HEART RETREAT

Young at Heart is a retreat for those 50+ that want to come to camp and have a fun time with fellow friends. As always, we're planning a fantastic program and are looking forward to sharing it! We believe this program will be a wonderful opportunity for our senior adults to come to camp and receive a blessing. To register online: www.campkulaqua.com and also for more info and pricing. Contact person for Registration: Stacy Stride, Registrar, (386) 454-1351.

"He will not refuse to hear the parents' earnest prayer, that is seconded by persevering labor, that their children may be blessed of him, and become faithful workers in his cause. When parents do their duty in God's appointed way, they may be sure that their requests for his help in their home work will be granted". ST 4 May 1888
